(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PHOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—The tax court today was attacked in the Superior Court by the Texas Oil Company, which had been directed to pay $20,000 on back taxes on gasoline sales. The defendant in its suit asserts that the tax is in violation of the Fourteenth amendment of the national Constitution in denying due process of law and that it grants immunities to persons purchasing gasoline outside of the state and using it in Arizona.

RATE CUT MARCH 1

ported by many organizations would increase the compensation of civil service employees in the District of Columbia by about $1,000,000 a year. While the bills are not yet in for the increases in the government's pay roll outside of the District of Columbia, it is estimated that the total government pay roll will be increased about $12,000,000 dollars a year if this bill passes.

It is not convinced that any material increase in the pay of government officers and employees is necessary.

PENSION INCREASE

Three proposals for increasing the pensions of veterans and dependents of veterans of the Civil War and other war prior to the World War are now running at about $100,000,000 a year. Back in 1913 it was about $15,000,000 a year. By 1918 it had been increased to $11,000,000. The act of 1919 liberalized the pension laws so that the present cost is about $100,000,000 a year more than it was in 1913.

The Bureau bill now pending, it is estimated by the Pension Bureau, would add about $50,000,000 a year to the existing pension law. The estimated annual cost of this bill is $140,000,000. The Knutson bill, also pending, would give Spanish War widows pensions ranging from $20 to $50 a month, as against the existing rates of $12 to $30. The estimated annual cost of this bill is $9,000,000.

Then there are the special pension acts, but they can hardly be regarded as anything new. These special acts are enacted at every session, to grant pensions or increases of pensions to constituents who cannot comply with the existing general pension laws to secure the degree of compensation desired. Each year these pension acts add between $200,000 and $300,000 to the pension charge.

By custom, each Senator and Representative is allowed a certain number of these special pensions in his district.

INTERIOR BILL PASSED

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The interior appropriation bill, the first of the big supply measure, was passed today by the Senate.

The measure now goes to conference. The Senate Appropriations Committee added about $1,700,000 to it as it was approved by the House and the Senate increased this by another $1,000,000 and $450,000 for the Boise (Idaho) reclamation project and $250,000 for the Yuma (Ariz.) project. The total as it passed the Senate was $324,000,000.

For average tire about eight and three-tenths pounds of raw rubber is required.

NEW MADDOO IN OIL LEASE QUIZ

In the messages as "the man at Wardman Park." "The Secretary," and finally "Fall." Senators asserted that McLean made inquiry to one McLean as to whether the former Secretary was coming to Palm Beach and appeared not over-enthusiastic about such a visit.

PALMER IS MENTIONED
The name of A. Mitchell Palmer, former Attorney-General, also appeared frequently in the messages. McLean said, adding that his advice apparently was sought on many occasions. Chairman Lenore and former Chairman Smoot of the oil committee also were mentioned. It was stated, however, that the public hearings being given by the committee to McLean.

The name of J. W. Zevely, personal counsel to Henry F. Sinclair, also appeared. Senators said Zevely afterward went to New Orleans to confer with Fall and upon returning here disclosed that the committee that Sinclair had loaned the former Secretary $25,000 three months after he retired from the committee.

The committee has called upon the telegraph companies for all messages that were sent from Washington to Zevely, Fall and E. L. Doherty while they were at New Orleans prior to the arrival here of Doherty to disclose that he made the now famous $100,000 unpaid loan.

LEASED WIRE USED
The committee has subpoenaed, according to Senators, that a leased wire was established between the publisher's cottage at Palm Beach and the Washington Post here at about the time Fall reached the Florida resort. This was a few days before Senator Walsh was there to question McLean.

After all of the copies of telegrams and messages have been sorted and those pertinent to the oil inquiry have been read into the record at a public hearing, he is probably next Thursday. He is in Washington now in response to a subpoena.

Senator Walsh said today he had no intention as to whether McLean would submit to questioning and whether or not he knew, no promise of immunity had been made to him.

Announcing that a subpoena had been issued for Henry Woodhouse of New York, Senator Walsh said it was desired to question him about an answer he wrote to the effect that the Doherty interests were under contract to supply to British interests all or a great portion of the oil reserves of the naval reserve No. 1 in California, which was leased to Doherty by Fall.

RECALL WAHLBERG
G. D. Wahlberg, former private secretary to Senator Walsh, was recalled for questioning as to the identity of the "Mr. Hayes" to $25,000 in Liberty bonds for Sinclair. In this connection Senator Walsh announced today there was no present intention of summoning Will H. Hays, former Postmaster-General.

Immediately after the committee adjourned today the committee initiated another inquiry by adopting in rapid succession a series of resolutions by Senator Norris, Republican, of Nebraska. They call upon the State, War, Navy, Interior and Treasury Departments and the Shipping Board for information as to whether former Cabinet officers have practiced before any of those agencies since the prosecution of claims since January 1, 1913.

Discussion of the oil matter also was renewed in the Senate. Senator Walsh again contradicting the information as to whether or not the output of oil from the McLean committee, confirmed Senator Walsh's statement as to the record in the matter.

MAKES NEW ATTACK
Tonight the news bureau made out a new attack on Democrats in connection with the oil leases. It charged that "former Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels now joins Senator Walsh of Montana, William G. McAdoo of California, Thomas Gregory of Texas, George Creel, and other prominent Democrats, in trying to run away from his records of transactions in connection with the oil and land leases."

Referring to Mr. Daniels' statement at Philadelphia, recently that the act of June 4, 1920, "was asked for the purpose of conserving the ground," the bureau's statement said he had asked for "power to take oil out of the ground and do with it as he pleased" and pointed to leases subsequently entered into with seven oil companies for extraction of oil from naval reserve No. 1 in California.

While the Senate discussion proceeded today, President Coolidge talked over the oil situation with Ailes Pomeroy, one of the government's special oil counsel. Mr. Pomeroy said afterwards a statement as to the counsel's intention regarding legal proceedings might be expected within a few days.

ready for launching, and those who are using him to retain Mr. Daugherty until he has had a hearing, are advising the President that to permit the Attorney-General to leave the Cabinet under fire, will be a signal for an attack on this other Cabinet officer, with probably more to follow on the part of the public.

THROUGHOUT A DAY in which conference followed conference, all of which centered about the question of retention of Mr. Daugherty in the Cabinet, the President maintained silence. After the Cabinet meeting it was announced he had no statement to make and inquiries at the White House after tonight's conference with the Attorney-General brought the reply that there was nothing to be said at this time.

DAUGHERTY SILENT
Mr. Daugherty also was uncommunicative and after his visit to the White House tonight his only answer to a direct question as to whether he would continue in office was the declaration that "there is no statement I can make." The Attorney-General left the White House plainly agitated. His customary joviality was noticeably absent.

The whole day's developments pointed to a climax in the near future in the Daugherty row, which has raged and gathered daily in momentum about the head of the Attorney-General.

The day's developments started with an hour's conference between the President and Paul Howland Cleveland, a close personal friend of Mr. Daugherty and his counsel in the House impeachment proceedings a year ago.

Mr. Daugherty arrived at the executive offices for the Tuesday Cabinet meeting half an hour after the visit of Mr. Howland, who had all inquiries as to the nature of the conference and his former attorney and the President.

STAY FOR CONFERENCE
The Cabinet session lasted only an hour but Mr. Daugherty, Secretary Weeks, Postmaster-General and Secretary Davis remained half an hour longer in conference with the President.

White House officials insisted that the Cabinet adjourned that the question of Mr. Daugherty's resignation had not come up for general discussion and neither the President nor the Attorney-General had any statement to make.

Previously, however, the President had talked over the situation with Senator Curtis of Kansas, one of the Republican Senate leaders, and later with Paul Howland of Cleveland, who acted as Mr. Daugherty's counsel during the impeachment proceedings a year ago.

Meantime, on the Senate floor, the Republican organization had been working on a resolution to force the resignation of the Attorney-General. The Wheeler resolution for an investigation to the Department of Justice. The purpose of the delay was to prevent a vote on the resolution.

It has been apparent that Republican Senators are convinced there may be developments making further action by the Senate unnecessary.

LODGE OBJECTS
It was Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the party floor leader, and one of those who have told the President Mr. Daugherty should retire, who objected to a request for unanimous consent in bringing the Wheeler resolution up for debate. Because of the present adjournment, action probably will go over until Thursday, at least.

Keynote of the contingent expense committee reported the Wheeler resolution, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Democratic, floor leader in the absence of Senator Wheeler, called for unanimous consent for immediate consideration.

Sensor Lodge got in the first objection and Senator Moos, also on his feet, reinforced it. Under the rules the resolution goes over a day, but it probably will be considered tomorrow because of the previously arranged program on a joint memorial session for President Harding.

The Attorney-General was among the last to leave the Cabinet session, but it was stated that he had been asked by the question of his retirement was not considered.

DENIES REPORTS
Asked by newspaper men about reports of a move to resign, Mr. Daugherty said he had no intention of resigning and that he had never predated or antedated anything.

He said he had no intention to write or statement to make you may rest assured it will bear the weight of the day's action is taken.

He declined to discuss the earlier conference between the President and Mr. Howland, but he said he was not sure whether any statement would be forthcoming from him in the near future.

He said he was "everybody will be notified."

HOLDS AMERICAN

Former Premier's Kin Says
They Haven't Learned
How to be Happy

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—American women are the loneliest women in the world, although they are charming, intelligent, hospitable, dress faultlessly and never are too fat or too thin," Mme. Marie Joneson, sister-in-law of the former Premier of Rumania, and art emissary of Queen Marie, said today.

She concluded that American women are loneliest because they have not learned that happiness comes from themselves out to provide luxuries for their women, and consequently die young.

"American men are good, they are angels," she declared.

GIRL HELD IN JAIL KILLING

Escaped Convict Caught, Accused of Slaying Aged Matron of Woman's Prison

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Feb. 26.—Gladys Ellis, alias Katherine Rogers, 31 years of age, who escaped from the Indiana Women's Prison here today shortly after the fading of the body of Miss Louise Richards, 70 years of age, a teacher and matron at the prison, whose skull had been fractured by a blow on the head, was captured here tonight.

The young woman was taken into custody by detectives as she stepped from a taxicab on a downtown corner, where she had made an engagement to meet a young man. Detectives found a bunch of keys to the prison belonging to the slain matron and also other property of Miss Richards, indicating she had been struck by the bunch of keys she usually carried.

VAIN LIFE EFFORT
Entwined about the fingers of the hand were strands of hair and the teacher failed to report to breakfast. Miss Richards was lying on her back, her hands and feet bound with strips torn from a skirt of torn hairnet, indicating she had been struck by the bunch of keys she usually carried.

CHINESE BUY WAR SUPPLIES
Huge Sale to Chihli Party by Italians Reported: Washington Treaty Powers on Watch

(BY CHARLES DAILEY)
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PEKING, Feb. 26.—The transportation has been completed of seventy-one carloads of munitions to an arsenal four miles west of Peking where they will remain under the guard of Italian marines until the remainder of the purchase price, $4,500,000, is paid by the Chihli party.

The munitions shipped here ostensibly as supplies for the Italian naval forces have been in the market for some time, being closely watched by the signatories of the Washington conference treaty wherein Italy made reservations.

Owing to these reservations the League of Nations will be asked to intervene, but the delivery has been virtually completed. It is reported that the Chihli party has accepted. Most of the Chihli party's bid has been paid.

The correspondent also learns that a shipment from Holland is now en route in a Mexican ship through the Chinese port. The arms, which are said to be for Chang Tao Lin, consist of 40,000 rifles, a proportionate amount of ammunition, machine guns, and a battery of 30,000 rifles and 40,000 rounds of ammunition. The Chihli party is making a conference in Peking for the disposition of these munitions and it is possible that they will be used in the annual spring campaign.

The writer learns from investigation in Tientsin and elsewhere that Chang Tao Lin, the Manchurian war lord, offered $4,200,000 and was about to take possession of a higher bid was received from the Chihli party and accepted. Most of the Chihli party's bid has been paid.

Friend Atmosphere in Court as German Chiefs
Face Treason Charge

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
MUNICH, Feb. 26.—Former Field Marshal Ludendorff, Adolf Hitler, leader of the Bavarian Fascists, and seven other defendants were placed on trial today for their connection with the "putsch" of last November. All of the defendants except one are charged with high treason.

The friendly atmosphere in which the trial began was noticeable. Hitler and Ludendorff chatted amiably together, while the other accused men seemed not to take the trial seriously.

In the morning session the indictment against the accused was read. The president of the court also read a statement of the career of Hitler, who stood and replied to questions put to him. The president laid particular stress on Hitler's war career, saying he had voluntarily joined the Bavarian army and had been wounded twice and named one. Hitler pointed to the president by declaring that he received only one wound.

The afternoon session was taken up with Hitler's statement to the court, in which he related his share in the "putsch." He declared he was not guilty of treason. He denounced the conduct of Dr. Von Kahr, the Bavarian dictator at the time and of Gen. Von Lossow, commander of the Bavarian Reichswehr.

After Hitler had concluded his statement an adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

FARMER AID
BILL READY
FOR SENATEPlan to Create Grain Export Corporation is Indorsed in Committee

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The McNary-Haugen bill proposing creation of a $100,000,000 farm produce export corporation, will be reported to the Senate Thursday as the first of the several farm relief measures under preparation in the present session of Congress.

The Senate agricultural committee, by a vote of 10 to 2 has authorized Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, to report the bill with its indorsement, after several weeks of hearings in which delegates from all the wheat producing States appeared for and against the proposed legislation.

Drawn by Senator McNary in cooperation with Chairman Haugen, Republican, Iowa, of the House agricultural committee, the bill was indorsed by the Northwestern Cooperative Wheat Marketing Association and other prominent farm organizations. It proposes that the corporation set up under its provisions be empowered to stabilize the exportable surplus of staple farm products, particularly wheat and live stock, and to place a check back to the grower the difference between the foreign price and a "ratio price" to be established from time to time.

LABOR WINS
SHARP TEST
IN COMMONSMacdonald Government is Upheld as Support from Liberals is Given

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, Feb. 26.—The labor government in the House of Commons today faced a test of its strength, and emerged successfully.

The question which gave the rise to the discussion in the House had to do with Health Minister Wheatley's recent action in giving the Poplar Guardians what practically amounted to a free hand in extending relief to the unemployed. This had threatened to call down the wrath of both Conservative and Liberal opposition, but when the House divided at 11 o'clock tonight on closure moved by a Conservative, the motion was defeated 295 to 225.

Many Liberals voted with the Laborites, and thus the government was saved from the delicate situation by the aid of the Liberals, much as it was a few days ago when the Conservative Premier MacDonald threw support on his proposal to lay down new warships.

The Liberal motion, fathered by Frank Briston, and the Conservative amendment, of which Sir William Johnson Hicks was sponsor, were talked out, and the Poplar question for the present is hardly likely further to disturb the labor government.

AMERICAN BOAT SEIZED IN CHINA

Cigarette Cargo Taken and Crew Jailed

Action Follows Refusal to Pay Illegal Tax

Move Believed to Forecast Stoppage of Trade

BY JOHN POWELL

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SHANGHAI, Feb. 26.—A boat

loaded with American cigarettes belonging to the American Tobacco

Products Corporation of New York was seized at the town of Ningpo, here, on the 23rd inst., on the orders of Gen. Lu Yung

Hsiang, military governor of Chekiang Province. The crew of the ship was thrown in jail and the vessel and its cargo are still held, according to reports received here.

The reason for the seizure was the refusal of the American company to pay an illegal military tax on foreign cigarettes, which the military governor recently levied in contravention of the treaty between China and America, which forbids internal taxation upon

American goods after the import tariff has been paid.

SEE TRADE END

Since American tobacco and cigarettes constitute one of the chief articles of American exports to China, the action of Washington in respect to the present seizure case is anxiously awaited by American business men here who believe that if Washington does not take action, the illegal taxation of tobacco will be extended to other lines of foreign goods, resulting in the complete paralyzing of foreign commerce.

AUTO TAX CUT UP

When adjournment was forced,

an amendment was before the House on which both Representative Longworth, the Republican leader, and Representative Garner of Texas, in charge of the Democratic forces, said they understood general agreement had been reached. This would provide for repeal of the 3 per cent tax on automobile trucks and wagons, the chassis of which sold for less than $1000, and for a cut in half of the 5 per cent tax on automobile tires and accessories.

The second extended row of the day broke out at this juncture.

Representative Clancy, Democrat,

Michigan, rushing to leaders on his side with the cry that he had been "double-crossed" in not obtaining time to speak. Representative Garner took the declaration

as directed at him, and rushed toward Mr. Clancy, when Representative Garner of Tennessee, the Democratic floor leader, intervened.

REDUCTION FAVORED

An agreement has been reached to end debate on the automobile tax schedule at 6 o'clock. Representative Clancy had not obtained time to speak when that hour was reached and efforts of both sides to prolong the session resulted in a parliamentary tangle provoking noise and confusion and adjournment was decided upon as the only way out. All speakers, however, had declared in favor of some reduction in these taxes.

Earlier in the day Republican rank were split by a sharp exchange between Chairman Green of the Ways and Means Committee and Representative Mills of New York, a member of the committee, during which Mr. Green charged the New York representative with

WARNED TO SHUN FORBES

Letter from Harding's Sister Telling Asserted Aide of Bureau Head to Beware, Given Prosecutor

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Mrs. J. M. Williams, wealthy Philadelphian, in whose home the scheme to loot the Veterans' Bureau of millions is asserted to have been hatched, was the first witness called today of the 100 to appear throughout the week before the special grand jury inquiring into the conduct of Col. Charles E. Forbes, while head of the bureau.

Mrs. Williams delivered to Special Prosecutor John W. H. Crim in charge of the investigation of the $225,000,000 graft and bribery in the bureau, a letter purported to have been written by Mrs. Carolyn Votaw, sister of President Harding, and wife of the Superintendent of Federal Prisons in the United States.

In the letter Mrs. Votaw told Mrs. Williams to "have Catherine (Mrs. J. B. Mortimer) wake up before it is too late; she has fallen for Forbes and is seeing him too much."

SEEKING DIVORCE

Mrs. Mortimer is the estranged wife of J. B. Mortimer, star witness for the government, who is said to have acted as the "go-between" for Col. Forbes and several contracting firms, including the Thompson-Black Company of Chicago and St. Louis.

Mrs. Mortimer recently filed suit for divorce from Mortimer in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Williams met her nephew, George B. Tullidge, Jr., of Oxford, Pa., who is said to have been taken off a milk auto truck he drove for $25 a week and upon recommendation of Mrs. Mortimer, appointed director of construction work in the bureau at an annual salary of $4500, as she was entering the grand jury room.

As the comely white-haired woman offered her nephew a trembling hand, he turned his back and grinned. Mrs. Williams, who is past the fifty mark, burst into tears as she proceeded with bowed head into the jury room.

Mortimer charges that Col. Forbes broke up his home, and, moreover, he says he will tell the Federal grand jury the entire episode involving Forbes and Mrs. Mortimer.

A surprise witness to be called later in the week is the former wife of Col. Forbes, who is said to have claimed that she found and intercepted letters from Washington to Col. Forbes, which, if made public, might create excitement in diplomatic circles.

CIGARETTE TAX RAISED

House Also Votes Levy on Gifts in Stormy Session; Republicans Threaten to Defeat Bill

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Two major amendments were incorporated in the revenue bill today by the House amid storms of debate involving a series of personal exchanges, threats of Republican organization leaders to vote against passage of the entire bill and a warning from Representative Mills, Republican, New York, of the possibility of a Presidential veto.

The session ended in a row over the reduction of the automobile taxes, final action on these proposals going over until Thursday. The House will devote its session tomorrow exclusively to a Harding memorial service.

A gift tax, imposing levies beginning at 1 per cent on total amounts of gifts in one year in excess of $50,000 and running up to 40 per cent, was voted, 191 to 65.

The tax on cigarettes was raised from 33 to 34 per thousand, by a vote of 117 to 85.

A provision of the bill granting exemption from the 10 per cent theater admission tax on all tickets of 50 cents and under without stood several assaults to lower or raise this exemption.

AUTO TAX CUT UP

When adjournment was forced, an amendment was before the House on which both Representative Longworth, the Republican leader, and Representative Garner of Texas, in charge of the Democratic forces, said they understood general agreement had been reached. This would provide for repeal of the 3 per cent tax on automobile trucks and wagons, the chassis of which sold for less than $1000, and for a cut in half of the 5 per cent tax on automobile tires and accessories.

The second extended row of the day broke out at this juncture. Representative Clancy, Democrat, Michigan, rushing to leaders on his side with the cry that he had been "double-crossed" in not obtaining time to speak. Representative Garner took the declaration as directed at him, and rushed toward Mr. Clancy, when Representative Garner of Tennessee, the Democratic floor leader, intervened.

REDUCTION FAVORED

An agreement has been reached to end debate on the automobile tax schedule at 6 o'clock. Representative Clancy had not obtained time to speak when that hour was reached and efforts of both sides to prolong the session resulted in a parliamentary tangle provoking noise and confusion and adjournment was decided upon as the only way out. All speakers, however, had declared in favor of some reduction in these taxes.

Earlier in the day Republican ranks were split by a sharp exchange between Chairman Green of the Ways and Means Committee and Representative Mills of New York, a member of the committee, during which Mr. Green charged the New York representative with "usurping the powers of the chairman" and Mr. Mills characterized Mr. Green as "the nominal chairman of the committee" pointing to Representative Garner as "the actual leader."

Mr. Mills declared he would not vote for the bill as it had been amended, opposing the gift tax and warned that "it may never become law." Representative Garner immediately dared other Republicans to follow Mr. Mills in opposing the entire bill and Representative Treadway, Republican, Massachusetts, said he would accept the dare as the bill now stood.

Franklin Pierce, Cub Guard

When Coach Caddy Works wanted a good running guard for his local University of California basketball team this year he took Franklin Pierce, a member of last season's freshman team, and converted the former forward into a defensive player. Pierce handles the duties of running guard and will be seen in action tonight against the Whittier College tossers at Whittier.

OBSERVATIONS BY THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER W.M.H.

One of these days somebody will be working out a new method of working out the pedicures of the racing drivers. Practically without exception all of the more recent racing drivers to come to the front with a rush have been youths who underwent a long stage of training at the hands of some older hand who had been in the business a long time, and was willing to give the youngster the benefit of his long experience at the game. Harris, Fenner, and many of the other recent phenoms are simply the natural products of their environment plus, of course, a natural aptitude for the game.

ADOLPH SCHACHT TO HELP KILLEFER
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
SEATTLE, Feb. 26.—Adolph Schacht, Seattle boxing referee and new trainer for the Seattle Coast League baseball club, left here today for Elsinore Springs, Cal., where he will help Wade Killefer, manager, prepare for the arrival of the pitchers and catchers. The battery men are scheduled to arrive Sunday for a week's preliminary conditioning before they report at the regular training camp at San Bernardino. This will be Schacht's first appearance as a baseball trainer.

QUAKERS MEET CUBS TONIGHT

Rival Quintets in Crucial Game at Whittier

Locals Must Win to Retain League Leadership
Coach Caddy Works's Tossers Slight Favorites

BY BRAVEN DYER
Once or twice a year the little town of Whittier gets all stirred up over some big athletic event. This evening the Whittier College basketball team plays host to the local University of California five in the most important game of the Southern California Intercollegiate Conference schedule and the residents of the hamlet are all excited over the battle. The Cubs are undefeated. The Poets have lost only one game. A win for the Quakers will therefore throw the 1924 race into a tie.

HAVE FULL STRENGTH
Both teams will present their best line-ups. Ray Johns and Ransons, guard and forward respectively for the Quakers, have completely recovered from the ailments which have kept them on the bench of late and both are rarin' to go against the Cubs. Capt. Eckles is the big scoring noise of the Poets, while Williams, center, can also be counted on for a number of markers. Rees, a new man this year, plays the other guard berth.

SAGEHENS UPSET DOPE
Pomona College is responsible for making the Cubs slight favorites tonight. The Sagehens rather unexpectedly knocked the Poets for a 27 to 17 defeat ten days ago. However, the Quakers were just beginning to get organized again after the loss had wrecked the team and by now Coach Essek Perry should have his machine running smoothly.

WILL PICK OLYMPIC RUGGERS TOMORROW
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—Thirty men to be certified to Paris as eligible for the American rugby football team at the Olympic games will be chosen from a list of about fifty aspirants at a meeting probably Thursday between Sam Goodman, president of the Northern California Rugby Association and the two coaches for the Olympic team.

MANUEL ALONSO GO ABROAD IN SUMMER
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

Seven Golfers Better Eighty in Opening Day of Medal Play; Stars Quality Today

BY CHARLES WEST
Samuel Dalzell, who plays his summer golf in Chevy Chase, Md., and spends his winters in Southern California, burst into prominence yesterday when he led the field by three strokes in the first day of qualifying for the San Gabriel Country Club's invitational tournament, coming within one stroke of par with a well-placed 73. Medal play will continue today, most of the stars having yet to play their round, and Dalzell's score may be undermined, when such men as Willie Hunter, Fred Wright, Arnold Stutz, Leon Keller, Everett Seaver, W. W. Campbell, E. S. Armstrong and Dr. Paul Hunter swing into action.

Pomona and Occidental Track Teams in Opening Meets Saturday

SAGEHENS HOST TO BEAR CUBS

Claremonters Not Worrying About Local Team

Coach Nixon's Outfit Weak Only in Weights

Maxwell Expected to Star in Hurdle Events

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) CLAREMONT, Feb. 26.—Coach Nixon and Strehle are waiting no time in grooming their Sagehens for their first conference meet Saturday when Southern Branch sends their team of B.V.D. athletes to the Pomona College campus.

No time is being lost in getting the Pomona runners in the best of condition for the meet, and the Sagehens are expected to be in the best of condition for the meet. The Pomona team is expected to be in the best of condition for the meet. The Pomona team is expected to be in the best of condition for the meet.

WEAK IN WEIGHTS

The loss of Richardson by the Branch, who hurt his finger recently, has considerably boosted the Sagehens' hopes for additional firsts in the field events, in which Pomona is weak this year through the loss of "Red" Morgan and his brother, Gilbert Morgan. "Red" was the champion hammer thrower of the conference and will be missed by Pomona in all of her meets this season, while the loss of Gilbert Morgan came as an unexpected blow as he was following in his brother's footsteps.

Little is known on the Pomona campus whether Richardson is keeping dark any of her other field stars and considerable worrying is being done by both Pomona coaches as to just what the outcome of the field events will be. Pomona boasts only one man who has shown anything worthy of mention in the field events and that is Roland Clark. Clark tried the discus and has been showing up well both in the pole vault and the shot put and may under competition show up to his best advantage Saturday.

STRONG IN HURDLES

Pomona looms supreme in the hurdles and is sure of several firsts and seconds in the remainder of the running events. Last night Nixon tried out Bob Maxwell, speedy hurdler, in the 100-yard dash, giving Pomona's best sprinter a try at the pole vault and with all that, Bob crossed the tape four feet in advance of his competitor, clicking off a speedy dash that brought a nod and a smile of approval from Coach Nixon.

SHREVEPORT GETS OUTFIELDER BARNEY

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE) SEATTLE, Feb. 26.—Ed Barney, pinch hitter and outfielder for the Seattle Coast League baseball club, has been sold to the Shreveport club of the Texas league, it was made known here today. Barney came to Seattle from the Buffalo club of the International League with a good reputation as a hitter, but a bad knee handicapped him so that he was used only as a pinch hitter and utility outfielder. Two former Seattle players, Bill Sumpter and Billy Orr, will make Barney feel at home with the Shreveport team.

PERSHING BEST JUMPER

Weatherwane Takes Second Award in Gala Horse Show at Ambassador Arena

BY TIMOTHY G. TURNER

No man with his cunning hand and brain never made a machine like the horse; the horse with his powerful motor and his steel springs, but all as delicate and nice as a Swiss watch, and his coat of velvet more beautiful than any ever fashioned.

(Illustration on Picture Page)

Los Angeles show this year is well up to the standard of Madison Square Garden and the Devon county show near Philadelphia, which has been given back by running Mr. Schilling, who is driving the harness horses of Mrs. Roth's stable, refers to horseflesh, and in so far, he is probably right. But it will take years to build up the horse-show spirit of, say, the Devon show which, by the way, is held in the out-of-door back in Pennsylvania, while our California one is held under a roof. The Devon show brings out a great many amateur performers, horsemen and horsewomen, who ride and drive their own animals and for the world would let no professional do it. They, too, are truly horse folk and to be seen in the audience. But it can be done here, and no doubt will be in time, for there are many parts once they can be gotten together. Horse shows, like other institutions, take years to build.

SENNETT ENTRY BEST

Pershing, Mack Sennett's big chestnut gelding, was judged the winner, which was a surprise for it was motion-picture night. Second was Weatherwane, the strapping gray gelding—16 hands 2—of the Misses Jarrett and Martha Woodin. The Master, also from the Woodin stables, was third.

The class produced some very pretty riding, especially from the women riders who seem to be at least as good as the men. Miss Leone Waid rode her own Rambler, and Mrs. Adelle von Ohi Parker, a horsewoman equally talented at English and western riding, rode her Daisy, truly nicknamed Wild, because of occasional very bad temper. The yearling also have again the graceful and perfect-form little rider, Miss Ruth Burns, who last night rode several of the jumpers from the stables of Revel Lindsay English.

Two very smart men riders appearing in last year's show are again with us this year. One is Earl Sandusky, who with Irving H. Hallman owns several horses entered in various classes. He is seriously expected to be a star in the following in his brother's footsteps.

Little is known on the Pomona campus whether Richardson is keeping dark any of her other field stars and considerable worrying is being done by both Pomona coaches as to just what the outcome of the field events will be. Pomona boasts only one man who has shown anything worthy of mention in the field events and that is Roland Clark. Clark tried the discus and has been showing up well both in the pole vault and the shot put and may under competition show up to his best advantage Saturday.

JUMPERS PROMINENT

The jumpers are prominent this year and there is keen competition. The Misses Woodin are daughters of Guy Woodin, formerly of Chicago, who has moved his stables to Beverly Hills. He rode one of his horses in the jumps last night and is a skilled horseman. Mr. Woodin has shown for many years at the Chicago show, and is now transferring his enthusiasm to Los Angeles, and there are many more such in these parts that sooner or later will take part in the local event.

Another very pretty class last night was the harness tandem, in which some noted animals appeared. It was won by Mrs. W. F. Roth's Netherland's Pile and Cadogan Boy. The former is from the John Wamaker stables. The second prize went to Mrs. Roth's Princess and Queen's Model, and the third to E. A. Stuart's Melancton and Monticelli. Melancton was the champion gig horse of America for several years.

There were several motion-picture stars in the boxes last night, and Will Rogers, that professional did an amusing turn with his children, and mighty good riding and fine children they are. He also did his notable rope twisting and gum chewing act, and such a thorough cowboy was not at all out of place at a horse show, for Rogers is a cowboy actor who is one, every inch.

COMPETITION IN SPRINTS LOOMS

Local Conference Colleges Strong in Dashes

Occidental and Pomona Have Lots of Sprinters

Argue Not to Have Things All His Own Way

For the first time in the past two or three years it looks as if the dash men of the Southern California Conference schools will afford another plenty of competition. Cliff Argue, who has held the palm for some time, seems to be a bit out of condition, although his showing in the A.A.U. relays is the only reason for such an assertion.

Occidental has a fast quartet of sprinters. Coach Joe Pipal feels that Argue will be all right within a couple of weeks and if he does round into shape the other runners will have a hard time of it. Cliff has done 10 flat repeatedly in years gone by.

MUCH LIKE LLOYD

Phil Buckman, Johnny Powers and Tony Spangler are also mighty good short-distance men. Buckman is built much like Keith Lloyd, sensational U.S.C. sprinter, and many Tiger supporters expect him to be the ace of the Oxy dash men this season. A pulled tendon or some two weeks ago may slow the Bengal athlete up.

Spangler is good for a point or so in the century, while Powers runs a wicked furlong. The Tiger runner is at his best, however, in the quarter-mile and runs the shorter race only as an additional event. Powers is also troubled with a bad leg, the result of a pulled tendon in the relays last Saturday.

Coach Eugene Nixon has a flock of 10.1 men, including Lowell Arnold, Doug Smith, Ron Walker, Homer Frisbie, George Stone and Frankhouse have all been showing good form, but both Cecil Cushman and Bob Maxwell, who specialize in the hurdles, is said to be able to trim the field in either the 100 or 250 yard race in both these events when the competition is not stiff in the stick-jumping races.

DALZELL LEADS IN GOLF EVENT

women golfers, scheduled for tomorrow at the municipal links at Griffith Park, will start at 10 a.m. instead of 11 a.m. according to Mrs. Ike Wentworth.

REDLANDS

A week-end sweepstakes, match play against par, at the Redlands Country Club, resulted in the following scores: B. M. Boyd, 2 down; C. F. Smith, 2 down; R. Hornby, 3 down; J. F. Gore, 5 down; C. J. Tripp, 8 down; C. C. Hatch, 8 down; W. S. Lincoln, 7 down; R. H. Hotchkiss, 7 down; E. B. Pendleton, 9 down; W. J. Rabe, 9 down and C. T. Paine, 10 down.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Porter D. Askew, the man who is responsible for the foundation of the Mountain View Country Club on Ventura Boulevard is receiving inquiries about membership in the new club from all over the United States. Some have heard of Southern California's new playground even in far-off Honolulu and want to know more about the largest golf project in the world.

There are 556 acres of land which will be devoted to golf, tennis, and kindred sports in this new club, which is expected to have a membership of several thousand. The rapid growth of Los Angeles and Southern California has been of such a nature that the county and city authorities have been unable to provide amusement parks for the inhabitants.

ALEXANDER TO TAKE ON O'GRADY FRIDAY

Victor Alexander and Martin O'Grady will meet in the main event of the Compton club Friday night. "Red" Uhlan, a favorite southpaw with Hollywood fans, will meet Jack Thompson in the semi-final at 155 pounds. Mack House and Huey Neil will go in the special event. Other bouts: Bobby Gray vs. Tony Lopez, 125 pounds; Johnny Dundee vs. Earl Lane, 117 pounds and a curtain raiser bout.

MERCURY TOSSERS CLASH WITH SEMONS

Determined to stage a comeback after their miserable showing Monday night when they dropped a 21-to-2 game to the A.A.C. quintet, the Larry Semon A.C. tossers will play host to the Mercury five at the Charley Ray Studio court this evening. If the clubmen win again they will go to Kansas City next month to play in the national A.A.U. tournament, while a win for the Comedians will make a third game necessary.

PLAN GOLF COURSE FOR ARIZONA TOWN

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) BENSON (Ariz.), Feb. 26.—Sponsored by employees of the Apache Powder Company, a golf course is being laid out in the San Pedro Valley, south of this point. About $1200 already has been subscribed and more is expected from members of Benson and Tombstone residents. C. M. Quinn of Curtis, is in charge of organization.

TIGERS MEET ENGINEERS

Bengals Favored to Win Easily, Though Competition Should be Keen in Sprint and Vault

The conference track season will be ushered in at Patterson Field next Saturday when Coach Joe Pipal's Occidental Tigers clash with the Caltech engineers in what is expected to be a somewhat lopsided meet. Although the Oxy squad is not in the best of condition as yet, the Bengals should experience little trouble in annexing enough points to down the Engineers.

Competition should be keen, especially so in the sprints and pole vault. In Darling and Edwards the Engineers have a pair of fast steppers who should be able to give Cliff Argue and Buckman of Oxy a rapid afternoon.

The pole vault will bring to the fore Goodenough of the Bengals and Graham of Caltech. At the A.A.U. relays last Saturday Graham

Quince Garden is Winner of Feature Race

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) SAN DIEGO, Feb. 26.—Sunnyland, in the feature event at Tijuana this afternoon, got caught in a jam rounding the first turn, but despite the handicap of trailing the field for three-quarters of the way, got up under a slashing ride to finish second to Quince Garden.

My Revere, won the fifth race with ease. In the second, Runleigh held on long enough to beat Lady Moore and Cannonball. A large crowd witnessed the nine races. Summaries:

Foley to Box Dick Giffin at Hollywood

Vic Foley, Vancouver bantam, who won the instant favor of the Hollywood fans when he held Teddy Silva to a draw two weeks ago, is re-programmed for the main event at the Movie City arena Friday night. Dandy Dick Giffin, local bantam, who has long been the idol of the Hollywood folk, has been named as Foley's opponent by Matchmaker Tom Kennedy.

Young Bello and Willie O'Brien, who both got their starts in the four-round game at Hollywood, box the semi-wind-up. Bello is a big favorite, and O'Brien is not far behind him in the popularity department.

Billy "Red" Cole, who fought many main events at Jack Doyle's old fight club, will hop into the ring Friday night for the first time in many months, meeting Jack MacFarland in the special event. Felix Villamor, stable hand and Young Nationalist, meets George Rivers at 118 pounds; Joe Burns tackles Johnny Waits at 120 pounds; Soldier Brown and Ted King meet at 133 pounds; and Pedro Villa, who is said to be a brother of Pancho Villa, the fly-weight champion, meets Joe Ricker at 115 pounds.

Redlands and the local University of California have no outstanding sprinters, but both Cecil Cushman and Harry Trotter are working hard in an effort to develop a couple of capable representatives.

Real Results that cost but a moment—try this plan for 50 miles

HERE'S a simple plan for motorists which thousands have tried and approved.

It produces desirable results without extra cost and may be thoroughly tested in 50 miles of ordinary driving.

Just try Union Non-Detonating Gasoline in your motor, unmixed with any other kind.

You'll find new speed, at your service when you want it.

Increased rush in the pick-up will take you out of many a congestion which would otherwise be hard to escape.

And a plus power on hills will enable you to take grades on high which would have meant second gear work in the past.

You feel this improvement at the wheel—it's just as though the motor itself had been improved. And you'll realize the difference in the first 50 miles you drive. Surely it's worth that easy test to know.

The Reason Such results do not come by chance. They are founded on scientific research.

DATE SET FOR STAR BOAT RACE

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 26.—The first race for the Sir Thomas Lipton star boat cup will be held in Santa Barbara July 4 as a part of the American Legion Independence Day celebration. It was decided at a meeting of the Santa Barbara Yacht Club last night. A committee composed of Ed Gourley, Ludwig Hoedling and Nell Sheridan was appointed by Commodore W. P. Butcher, Jr., to work with the Legion in arranging the different races for the afternoon. The race will be attended by star boat owners from Los Angeles, Newport, San Diego and possibly San Francisco and Vancouver. It is believed, inasmuch as representatives of southern yacht clubs who were present at last night's meeting asserted their willingness to take part in the initial race. The Lipton cup race, which will be followed by mow and R-boat races is planned by the yacht club as its part in making the Legion celebration a success. Everything is being planned in co-operation with the American Legion.

Droughts mean nothing to Bill Eslick's jungle babes. The parched soil at Washington Park yesterday morning and afternoon had no depressing effect on Deacon Van Buren's charges, twenty-nine strong, for they plunged into their practice with midseason fervor. The A. M. workout pleased Eslick very much. Not a sore shew was yet bobbed up and charley horses are still a drug on the market; the near future, however, may bring a different tale.

BY BOYD COMSTOCK
Coach Citrus Union H. S. National champions 1912, University of Southern California, Coast champions 1915-16, Field coach Yale University 1923, Author of "The Olympic Games" and "The Olympic System."

Consistent in this line and this last year placed fifth at the intercollegiate. His best average is around 44 feet. Witter and Neufeld can be counted upon to average a trifle better than 45 feet. Beattie of Princeton is also in Thompson's class. He shows rare ability at time and has a record of better than 47 feet. In spite of his inability to place at the intercollegiate, it might be said that Beattie has an even chance of getting into the Olympic class. He has the weight and speed but lacks the finish that is possessed by the best performers.

Redlands Five Tramples Over San Bernardino

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
REDLANDS, Feb. 26.—By defeating San Bernardino 20 to 17 in the final Citrus Belt League game here this afternoon, Redlands put the Citrus Belt League basketball schedule in a terrific muddle. Three teams are tied, Redlands, Chaffey and San Bernardino, each with five games won and three lost.

The game was one of the fastest ever seen on the local courts. At half time the score was 13 to 12 in favor of Redlands. Duke had made nine of the points for San Bernardino, but he failed to make any in the second half. San Bernardino got but one field goal in the second.

Ralph De Palma to Permit Scandinavian to Drive Beach Car Sunday

Ignoring George Bente's announcement that Sig Haugdahl, Fred Horey, Fred Lecklider and Leon Dorey will participate in a quadrangular match as the feature of next Sunday's Ascot Speedway program, Ralph De Palma seems determined not to allow the Scandinavian to side-step meeting him while driving a car of 300 or less piston displacement.

"I am the victim of a raw deal on the part of the Ascot," said De Palma last night. "The idea of permitting Haugdahl to say what competition car he shall drive in Ascot races does not set right with me. The Flat is not the only car Haugdahl can secure for Ascot races. But it seems he stamped Bente by threatening to leave for Australia at once unless he could use the Flat. Here is the proposition: I made to the Ascot management tonight. I will agree to let Haugdahl use his 180-mile an hour beach car in Sunday's races if I am permitted to drive the Flat. That is how fast I think the giant motorized Italian car is. I am not afraid to race any man in the world with cars anywhere near equal in piston displacement. Now let's see how much sporting blood there is in Mr. Haugdahl."

THOMSON CONSISTENT

Harizon Thomson, a recent graduate of Princeton, has been consistent in this line and this last year placed fifth at the intercollegiate. His best average is around 44 feet. Witter and Neufeld can be counted upon to average a trifle better than 45 feet. Beattie of Princeton is also in Thompson's class. He shows rare ability at time and has a record of better than 47 feet. In spite of his inability to place at the intercollegiate, it might be said that Beattie has an even chance of getting into the Olympic class. He has the weight and speed but lacks the finish that is possessed by the best performers.

CHOICE OF FIELD

Hills looks to be the choice of the field on account of his success in various types of meets and his consistent ability to better the 47-foot mark. He is a member of the Junior class at Princeton and last year won the intercollegiate shot championship with a put of 47 feet 3 3/4 inches. In the preceding marks he bettered this mark and at times has shown 50-foot ability. His best competitive mark is only slightly below this mark. He was considered the logical winner of the Nationals but did not enter. Barring his defeat by McDonald, in 1922, he has a clean slate.

BETTERS MARK

Schwartz of the Illinois A.C. must be placed ahead of the majority of collegiate performers because of his ability to better in shot national competition the 45-foot mark. He placed second to Eastman in the 1923 juniors with a put of 45 feet, 11 inches and fourth in the seniors with 45 feet, 1 inch.

CANDIDATE FOR SHOT

Last year he concentrated on the shot event and it is probable that he will do the same this year. He should put better than 48 feet in the shot and is a very capable of approaching or bettering the long standing record of 51 feet. The same may be said of Hartnuff, if he shows his 1922 ability.

GIFTED PUPIL IS CLASS PROBLEM

School System is Scored as Handicap to Brains

Segregation According to Intellect is Advised

Education Study Society Discusses Reforms

(BY A. P. MORT WIRE)
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Failure of the American education system to give special attention to gifted pupils was characterized tonight by speakers before the National Society for the Study of Education as the vitiating weakness of public education.

Only by the segregation of pupil groups according to mental endowment may the educational appropriations of the cities be made to yield their maximum returns, a number of speakers declared in the discussion of the problem of "the gifted child."

THIRING OF EDUCATORS
The society's meeting is part of the program of the annual convention of the department of superintendence, National Education Association, which has brought more than 10,000 educators from all parts of the country to the city.

Education for the outlying of war, rural and vocational problems, teacher training, kindergarten methods and the social problems of high school occupied the convention today.

A systematic and vigorous program for the complete elimination of the "little red schoolhouse," once looked upon as the backbone of the American educational system, was urged by Dr. Frank B. Graves, president of the University of New York, before the general session today.

MUSIC SCHOOL REFORM
Consolidation of community resources was suggested as the first step. The traditional lore which surrounds the rustic seat of learning has long prevented its accurate appraisal by popular judgment, in the opinion of the speaker. Subjected to scientific analysis, the first love of all public speakers takes its place with the dinosaur and the hoop skirt, Dr. Graves declared.

FORD FAVORS TAX SLASH

Manufacturer Says High Levy Means Increased Cost of Living; Partisanship is Scored

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Henry Ford is in favor of low taxes. In an interview with Samuel Crowther, which is to appear soon in Collier's National Weekly, the famous automobile manufacturer says that high taxes mean a high cost of living. As far as he is personally concerned, he said, he doesn't care how high taxes are because he has plenty to live on, but as a matter of business and national prosperity he feels that low taxes are imperative.

"It is very hard for a man who earns a great deal of money to talk about taxes," he said. "For it always seems as though he were asking to be allowed to keep his money. But at the highest time that we got to thinking straight on taxes."

"There should be nothing political about taxes. The bread we eat is not partisan, and neither should be the taxes we pay. People seem to be fooling themselves about taxes. We have had a period of hysteria in government. No one seems to care how much government costs, provided the money is raised from the other fellow."

"It is time we put a stop to this and started to think of taxes in terms of the cost of living. Every cent the government spends, just as every cent we as citizens spend, has to come from somewhere. Any administration or any set of legislators that advocate high taxes ought to be run out of office because they are really advocating high cost of living."

"We have to pay some taxes, but the greater part of what we pay ought to go for productive purposes—for good roads, for schools, for better health and all these things which make life easier."

"But we ought to pay as we go and not attempt to have things we cannot afford to have. There is nothing more dangerous to prosperity of the country than putting heavy taxes on those who seem to have more money than they need."

Mr. Ford cited his automobile company as an example. The company started on very little, he said, but grew because most of the profits were put back into the business. At the same time the price of the product was lowered. This would have been impossible, he maintained, at least in the degree in which it has been done, if most of the income or the profits had been taken in taxes. Mr. Ford claimed it is the same with every other business.

So they called it, The Paraffine Paint Company

Two adventurous Pennsylvania oil men came to California in the early '80's to win a fortune in the newly found oil fields. They experimented with the refining of California petroleum and discovered its base to be a solid black substance. The base of Pennsylvania oils is paraffine, so naturally enough they called their new-found product "Black Paraffine." (It was in reality asphalt.)

A little later discovering that the "Black Paraffine" had unusual preservative qualities, these two men founded "The Paraffine Paint Company" and began the making of preservative paints. From this humble origin has grown the present great institution—The Paraffine Companies, Inc.

JUNKET FUNDS ARE WITHHELD

Philippine Parliamentary Trip Hit Blow

Independence Mission Held Illegal in Ruling

Native Press Raps Quizon for Proposal

BY WALTER ROBB
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

MANILA, Feb. 26.—The proposed parliamentary junket trip to the United States for the purpose of arousing sentiment for Philippine independence may be abandoned. Such action is expected to follow Insular Auditor Wright's refusal to approve the pay vouchers of 117 Senators and Representatives for the week they act as an independence commission and organized the third parliamentary mission to the United States.

The action of Insular Auditor Wright is also interpreted as a body blow against the legislative measure establishing a fund of 1,000,000 pesos annually for use in propaganda. The payment was held illegal on the grounds that the Legislature in creating the fund into a commission and voting 1,000,000 pesos annually for its work created offices of public trust and emolument contrary to the Organic Act of Congress of 1916.

PROPAGANDA CHECKED
The refusal of Auditor Wright to approve the vouchers has spread consternation among the faithful followers of Manuel Quizon, the political leader of the Philippines, and especially among the eighteen legislators who were scheduled to make the trip to America and then renew their attacks on Gov.-Gen. Wood.

Auditor Wright's ruling covers a comparatively small amount—$3900 to $4000 at the most—but the basis on which it was made affects the entire commission and all its propaganda work in America as well as other parts of the world. The extent of its operations is unknown because the commission keeps its records secret, giving no accounting of the funds spent to anyone. It is therefore thought doubtful that the mission will ever leave Manila because through Auditor Wright's ruling the commission itself is held illegal and the mission which is organized therefore must also be illegal.

It is understood, however, that the missionaries for independence now in the United States, including Speaker Roxas, will be permitted to return home at government expense so that they will not be stranded. The native press here has been even more outraged than Americans on the islands at the thought of sending eighteen legislators junketing to Washington at government expense in times like the present when Gov.-Gen. Wood is forced to veto sound legislation because of lack of funds. Many of the local newspapers have taken the legislators severely to task for the proposed trip.

CHESTER'S END COMES SUDDENLY

Creator of "Wallingford" Retires in Apparent Good Health; Dies in Night

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—George Randolph Chester, author and creator of the fictional character, "Get-Rich-Quick" Wallingford, died of heart disease at his home, 26 West Ninth street, this morning.

Mr. Chester, who was 54 years of age, had been in apparent good health up to a few minutes before his death. As was his custom, he worked on one of his short stories of "Easy," a new character he has recently created, until 11:30 o'clock last night. Then he had a heavy supper, chatted a while with Mrs. Chester and retired.

At 1 o'clock he awoke and complained to Mrs. Chester that he had pain in his chest. She applied a liniment and Mr. Chester took a hot bath. "Well," he commented to his wife, "when we want to torture anybody in the 'Easy' story hereafter we'll put liniment on him and give him a hot bath."

Mr. Chester appeared relieved and fell to sleep shortly after. Between 3 and 4 o'clock he woke himself coughing, but soon fell asleep again. At 4 o'clock he awoke coughing and rose to an sitting position. He coughed violently and fell back dead.

The author leaves a widow, Mrs. Lillian Chester, who collaborated with him in his stories of J. Rufus Wallingford, and two sons by his first wife, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Chester, who divorced him in 1911.

Heavy Fall With Gales
Forecast for City Now in Grip of Ice

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Topping Monday's light snowfall another snowfall began tonight which probably will continue over Wednesday. The Weather Bureau predicts that the fall will be heavy, with strong northerly winds, probably reaching gale force.

The snowfall Monday night started at midnight, falling for more than four hours. On the streets, under the feet of pedestrians and the wheels of vehicles it turned most immediately to slush.

The new layer of snow on the city foundation made movement of traffic difficult on many thoroughfares, particularly for horse traffic. One milk-wagon driver, reporting that his horse fell down three times within half an hour. The street cleaning department had a large force of men at work today with pick axes and shovels to clear the streets of the huge piles of ice-bound snow left by the last storm.

AGENCY LAW OF STATE ILLEGAL

Declared Unconstitutional by Supreme Court

Measure Limited Fee Due for Employment

Opinion Holds Bureau Can Make Own Rates

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The so-called employment-agency law, limiting fees to be charged by contracting labor bureaus in California and approved by the last Legislature, was declared unconstitutional by the State Supreme Court this afternoon.

The case was that of H. B. Smith of Los Angeles, who obtained his release on habeas corpus proceedings after being arrested for a violation of Section 11 1/2 of the Amendment Act of the Legislature, approved June 18, 1923. This measure provided that 10 per cent of the first month's wages was the maximum fee to be collected by employment agents in obtaining positions for laborers, clerks, bookkeepers and many others.

In its decision dismissing the prisoner the court said:

"The contractual rights of the employment agent constitute his property rights and he cannot be deprived of his property without due process of the law."

The opinion went on to say that, in the belief of the court, the statute is invalid and that a labor agent has the right to make a contract for whatever fee may be demanded by the situation. The person seeking employment, the decision pointed out, does not have to agree to the conditions if he does not desire to.

Oil Men to Try to Offset Teapot Scandal Stigma

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE)
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—A call for a general conference of the oil industry for March 25, to determine what shall be done to offset the attacks on the industry resulting from the Congressional oil-teapot investigation, was issued today by the Chicago oil-trade committee.

Invitations to the conference, to be held in conjunction with the huge public demonstration here during "petroleum week," March 24 to 25, have gone to executives and directors of the American Petroleum Institute, the Midcontinent Oil and Gas Association, the Western Petroleum Refiners' Association, National Petroleum Marketers' Association, National Association of Independent Oil Producers, American Oilmen's Association and various State jobbers and marketers organizations.

More Slashes by Emergency Fleet Concern

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Further slashes in operating expenses have been determined upon by President Palmer of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. As a result of the reduction $15,000 in the salaries of the Corporation's four vice-presidents, a similar sum probably will be saved through elimination of the position of managing director of United States Lines, made vacant yesterday by the resignation of William J. Love.

PALMER REPLIES TO CHARGE BY PINCHOT

EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS NO APPEAL LAY IN RAIL LAND SUIT

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Charges made by Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania in an address in New York last night that the failure of A. Mitchell Palmer, as Attorney-General, to carry to the Supreme Court the government's land suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, was a case of "indifference to public duty" were characterized as "ridiculous" in a statement tonight by Mr. Palmer.

The former Attorney General declared that after the lower court had found "all the facts" in the case against the government, holding on the evidence that the railroad company did not know at the time it received the patent of land that it contained oil, all government counsel agreed in the case had recommended against appeal.

As the government had presented all the facts in its possession and the court had made no error in the law adverse to the government, his counsel, he said, were of one mind that "there was nothing to appeal from."

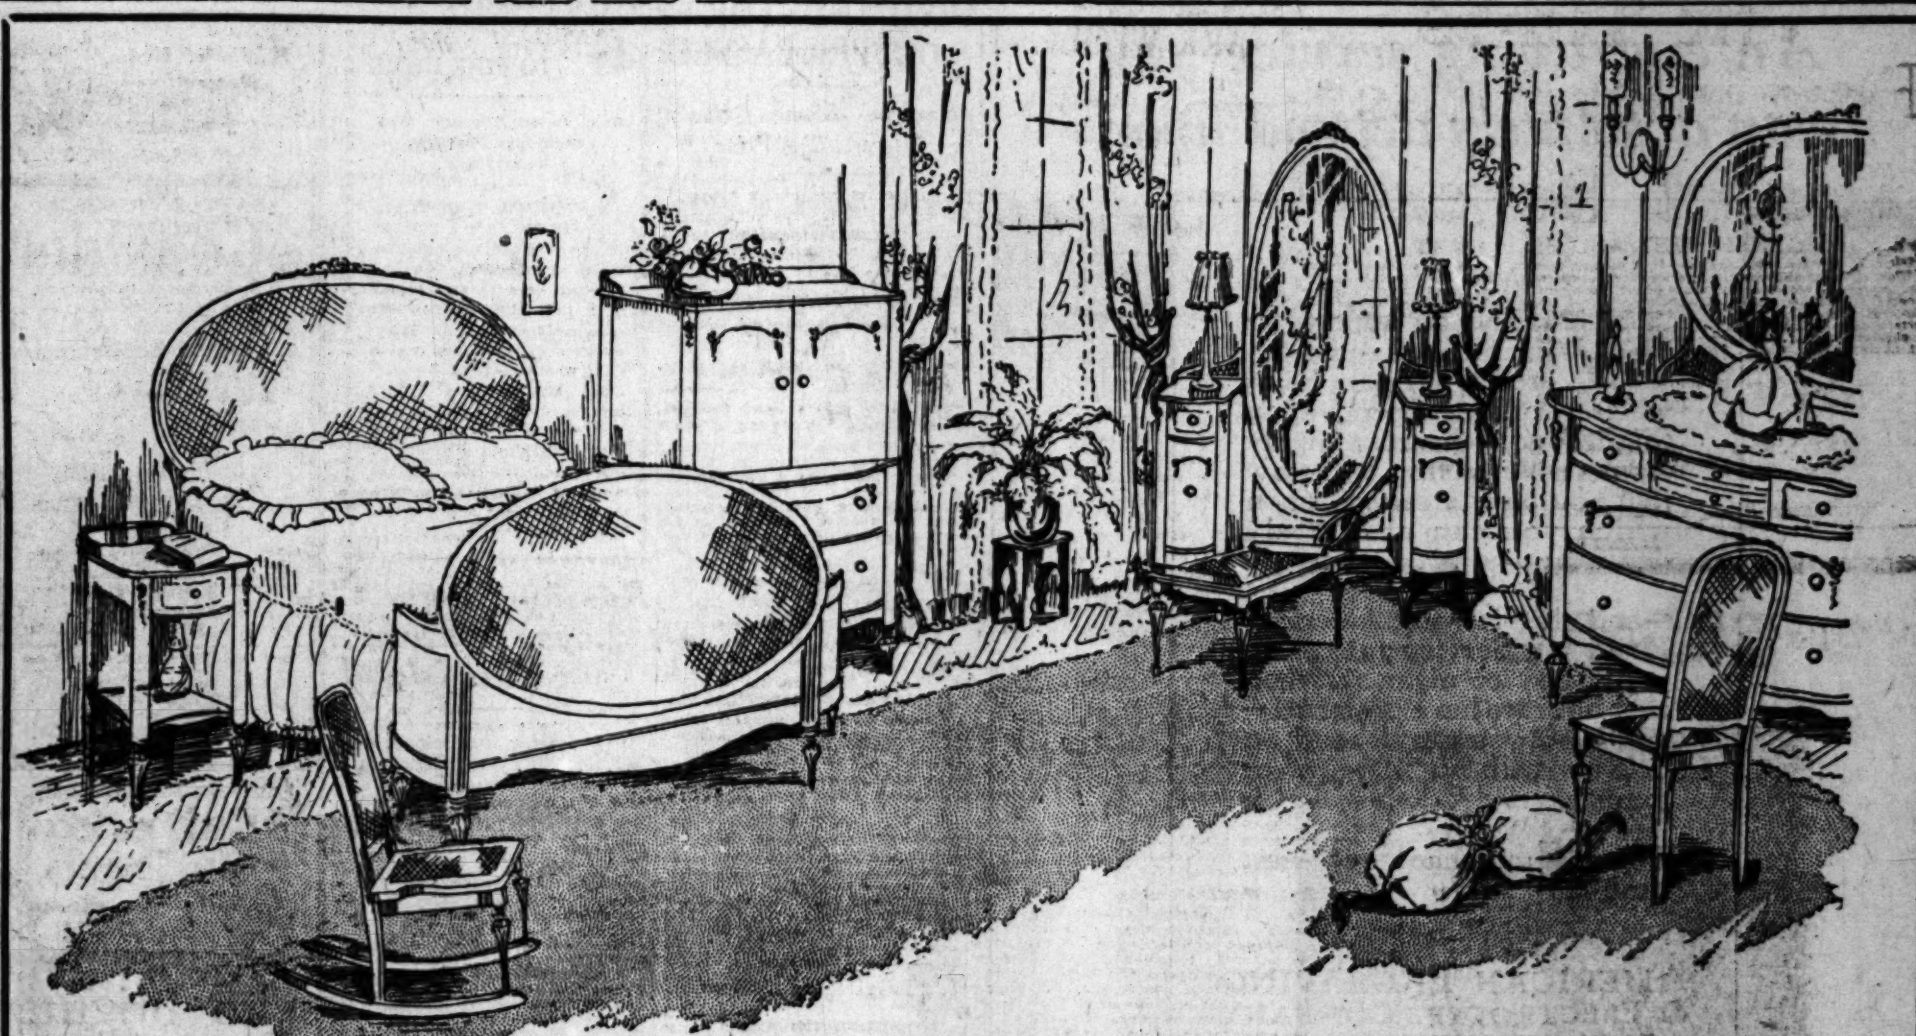

President Wilson, Mr. Palmer said, had approved his decision against an appeal when the matter was brought to his attention by Mr. Pinchot.

STREET INTERSECTION WRECKED BY BLAST

MAN THROWN FIFTY FEET IN AIR TO DEATH; OTHERS ARE HURT

SCRANTON (Pa.) Feb. 26.—Two terrific gas explosions following in quick succession blew up the entire intersection of Wood-lawn street and Adams avenue, killing one man, injuring four others and damaging a half-dozen homes.

City officials on the scene early said a mine disturbance in workings of the Pennsylvania Coal Company were responsible for the blast.

John Brown, general foreman for the Scranton Gas and Water Company, was killed. His body was lifted fifty feet into the air and landed in a field 100 feet away.

Robert Parsons, another gas company employee, standing with Brown, was blown seventy feet in an opposite direction and was seriously hurt.

Two men on an ice wagon were blown over the heads of the horses and landed eighty feet down the block.

Another man, entering his home with a bottle of milk, was blown into a mass of telegraph and telephone wires that were blown down. It is believed a mine cave-in wrecked a water main and in the hole beneath the surface there accumulated a vast amount of gas. Brown and his helpers were looking at the water leak on the surface when the explosion came.

Officials said there was no accident in the mine. Telegraph and telephone wires and poles were knocked down. Chunks of earth, some weighing several tons, were blown a half block.

HOSPITAL INMATES MAY BE REMOVED

ARIZONA OFFICIAL REPORTS MOST INSANE FROM OTHER STATES

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PHOENIX, Feb. 26.—According to Dr. George W. Stephens, superintendent of the Arizona Hospital for the Insane, "most of those committed here are transients, health-seekers, sick miners from other States, and a nomadic class of low mentality." He will ask the next Legislature to enact a law under which he will be able to turn back to other States the insane who belong to them. In an enrollment of 800 patients, only fifty per cent were born in Arizona, thirty-four came from Texas, thirty from California, 105 from Mexico and seventeen from New Mexico.

Aided by the working of a large asylum farm, the per capita cost of maintenance is only 77 per cent a day. Meat, milk and butter, poultry and eggs, vegetables and grains are produced by the use of the labor of the inmates, who are believed to benefit by the healthful exercise thus afforded.

DIVIDENDS FOR COPPER PASSED

Anaconda Blames Heavy Interest, Low Price

Hurried Selling of Other Shares Results

Stocks of Several Concerns Are Liquidated

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Confronted with heavy bond interest of more than $9,000,000 a year and the low price of copper metal, which makes it virtually impossible to operate at a satisfactory profit, directors of the Anaconda Copper Mining Company met today to pass the quarterly dividend of 75 cents a share due at this time. This rate was resumed last April and was paid three months ago.

The board's announcement was followed by heavy selling of the copper shares, most of them establishing new low records for the year. Anaconda suffered an extreme drop of 4 points to 34 1/2, compared with the year's high of 41.

SEVERAL OMITTED
Speculative fears that other North American producing companies would take similar action were reflected in the liquidation of other copper stocks. Particularly Inspiration, directors of which met next Thursday for dividend action. Calumet and Hecla company also omitted its dividend last Saturday.

Anaconda resumed dividends when copper was selling at 15 cents a pound, but large imports of the metal from South America and South Africa, where production costs are much lower than in the United States, was said by leading dealers to have kept the price down despite record-breaking consumption.

OTHER DIVIDENDS UP
It was reported that North American producers must obtain 15 cents a pound to obtain a satisfactory profit. In the case of Anaconda, however, it was believed the revenue derived from its stockholdings in the American Brass Company and Chile Copper, a South American property, would insure the safety of the dividend at this time. International Business Machine Company, formerly the Computing-Tabulating Recording Company, increased its dividend from $1.50 quarterly to $2 quarterly. Placing the stock on a $5 basis was said to have been due to $400,000 left from 1923 earnings for surplus, and $500,000 received from patent infringement.

Borne-Scrymgeour Company declared an extra dividend of $2 in addition to regular semiannual dividend of $4 a share.

CALUMET AND HECLA LOWERS OPERATIONS

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
HOUGHTON (Mich.) Feb. 26.—The Calumet and Hecla Consolidated Mining Company today announced curtailment of operations to five days a week instead of six, effective March 3. Mines, mills and smelters are included. No other company has announced a similar action. Copper surplus and low price of copper are said to be responsible for Calumet and Hecla's action.

CITIZENSHIP CHANCES MARRED BY CHEATING

FORMER OFFICER IN GERMAN ARMY SCORED BY COURT AT HEARING

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Cheating the transit line by substituting inferior coins for 5-cent pieces in the subway turnstile slot machines is an offense deserving deportation if committed by an alien. This was the ruling of justices in the Court of Special Sessions yesterday when Inger Broderick of Woodhaven admitted he dropped a French coin of little value into a turnstile slot January 26.

Broderick, who claims to have been an officer in the German army during the war, came to New York from Bremen on January 2. He said he put a French coin in the turnstile slot because he did not have a 5-cent piece in his pocket. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and serve a day in the Tombs. The court decided to report him to the immigration authorities with the recommendation that an alien who resorted to petty theft after being in the country only twenty-four days is a bad citizenship prospect.

CONVICTS TO TESTIFY AT TRIAL OF WOMAN

FORMER POSTMASTER AND ASSOCIATE CALLED FROM LEAVENWORTH

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
TUCSON (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—Lon R. Bailey, former postmaster at Blaine, and Matt Keaton, his accused associate in a robbery of postoffice funds, are to be returned here from the Leavenworth penitentiary to be witnesses at the trial of Mrs. Hattie Luke on March 11. The robbery occurred April 2, 1921. Bailey at first reported that he had been overpowered by bandits who forced him to open the safe and who then bolted and left him in the janitor's closet. On Keaton's confession, both were convicted and half of the loot of $40,000 in currency was recovered. There was claim that the balance of the money had been entrusted to Mrs. Luke, a friend of Bailey's, who owned a ranch near which Keaton had hidden his share. She was tried in the Federal Court in Tucson in February, 1922, but the jury disagreed. She remained in jail a while. In default of $20,000 bond, she was released when the bail was reduced to $5,000.

GASOLINE USED TO FIRE HOME

Hole Bored Through Wall, Fluid put Through, Then Fired

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CLIFTON (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—A new method for manifestation of malice has been developed here in the boring of a hole through the side of a residence for the introduction of gasoline, which then was fired from the outside. Mrs. William Wright awakened at 4 a.m. to note an unusual light under the door of her bedroom. Arising she found the side of her home in flames. Quick work by Mrs. Wright and her two sons saved the structure.

Russian Singer Loyal to Mate at Ellis Island

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Russia and rags with her husband are preferable to America and affluence without him, Mrs. Vera Lavrova, Russian singer, declared today. She was told she could enter the United States as an artist, but that her war-maimed and impoverished husband, Baron Royce Garrett, would be detained pending the report of a board of inquiry.

The couple arrived yesterday from South Africa, third class. While fighting with the White Army, the Baron lost his fortune and was maimed.

Mrs. Lavrova is the daughter of a grand opera singer and of a member of the first duma. She is in her early twenties, slight and blonde.

They are now at Ellis Island, although Mrs. Lavrova is at liberty to go where she pleases.

"We shall wait here," she said. "Whatever we do we shall do it together."

TWO DEAD AFTER FAMILY QUARREL

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
EVERETT, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Mary Thompson was found dead by someone who forced the door of her home at Marysville, near here. Shortly afterward the body of Charles L. Yeoman, 40 years of age, her son-in-law, was found in a nearby field. Apparently he had shot himself. Police said that Yeoman and his wife had quarreled, and that she had accompanied Mrs. Thompson to Seattle yesterday. Later Yeoman was seen near Mrs. Thompson's home.

Three Convinced

Mrs. Warnholz declares Tanlac "the greatest medicine on earth." It helped her and her grandmother, she states.

"My mother and grandmother both say they never saw such improvement as Tanlac has made in me and they like myself, think it is the greatest medicine on earth." is the glowing tribute of Mrs. Ruth Warnholz, 2039 32nd Ave., Oakland, Calif.

"Ever since childhood, I suffered from stomach trouble and the past ten years it has been extremely bad. My appetite was very poor. I had fallen off until I only weighed eighty pounds, and that miserable, worn-out feeling that was ever with me beggars description. "Tanlac helped my grandmother so much that I decided to take it, and, oh, how fine and happy I feel! Why, for the first time in years I have no stomach misery and I am eating so ravenously that I have actually gained nineteen pounds." Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. # Pomona (Capital to build bungalow courts, small homes and business blocks has a great opportunity right now at)

"THE PLACE WHERE YOU'D LIKE TO LIVE"

A SHORTAGE OF HOMES means a prosperous city. Such is emphatically the case at Pomona.—We need bungalow courts. We need four and five room homes. We need business blocks. There is such a demand for this construction that any investment for the purpose has the most positive assurance of permanent safety and stable high yield.

One of the biggest inducements is the low price of high grade building sites. There has been no real estate boom in Pomona—no inflation of real estate values. You can purchase property here more reasonably than any correspondingly attractive property in any Southern California community.

The prosperity that has made this opportunity is not sudden nor transitory. It is rooted deeply in the marvelous fertility of Pomona Valley soil, the strategic location of the city and in the varied advantages which make Pomona the place where people want to live.

Pomona is a fast growing city thru which run 134 trains daily on 3 transcontinental railroads. It is traversed by several great highways and is reached by bus and inter-urban electric lines furnishing frequent service. Because of the availability of transportation, the cheapness of power and fuel and the low price of building sites, Pomona is taking on greater and greater importance as a business and industrial center.

Pomona has many advantages besides those of a material nature. A healthful, pleasant climate, a superior class of citizenship, an unsurpassed school system, a thorough progressive community life are all factors in making it desirable as, "The Place Where You'd Like to Live."

Put a bungalow court, some modest homes or a business block up in Pomona and you meet an urgent need at a good profit to yourself. Or, locate on a farm or orchard, or go into poultry raising or dairying in the Pomona district and you solve for good the problem of a stable livelihood.

Buckeye Irrigation District to be Formed

Reclamation Proposed for 22,000 Acres

Bond Issue of $1,000,000 to Pay for Work

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
BUCKEYE (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—Great changes are expected in this section through organization of the Buckeye Water Conservation and Drainage district, which is to take over the property of the Buckeye Canal Company, at an appraisal of $130,000, and which has obtained assent from the State Board of Certification for a bond issue of $1,000,000.

DAM TO BE BUILT

First of the improvements contemplated is a permanent rock diversion weir at the head of the Buckeye Canal, a short distance below the point where the Agua Fria River enters the Gila. This dam is expected to cost about $450,000, together with a number of miles of new canals, while $250,000 will be set aside for drainage works that have been started already.

The new district embraces 22,000 acres, lying along the north bank of the Gila River, between the Agua Fria and Hassayampa rivers, with a length of about twenty-four miles. At points the water table is high and drainage is essential. The water thus left at low-river periods and the excess water of the system will be used on lands west of the Hassayampa, north of Arlington, to irrigate a large tract that has been LINCOLN (Neb.) Feb. 26.—The notion that the husband is head of the family is a "common law fiction," the Nebraska Supreme Court declared today, in the opening of a woman's case here for the unlawful possession of a still.

WIDE EXPANSION OF FIELDS

North of the Buckeye Canal to the White Tank Mountains, is an expanse of about 40,000 acres that is to be irrigated by excess and pumped waters from the Salt River Valley, under a contract to an agricultural district represented by Carriek & Mangham of Phoenix. It is expected that within ten years Buckeye will be the center of an agricultural district of at least 70,000 acres. Ample transportation facilities already are available in a Southern Pacific Railway line that has been built to the Hassayampa, for eventual extension to Yuma, and by a concrete road that extends from Phoenix to this city.

KINGSBURY PROTESTS INNOCENCE

Convicted Banker Writes From Cell, Laying Blame on Former Cashier

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
TEMPE (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—From the State penitentiary W. J. Kingsbury has written at length, protesting his innocence of wrongdoing in connection with the failure of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, of which he had been president for twenty-five years, and placing all the blame on the shoulders of his fellow-prisoner, Thornton Jones, Jr., former cashier, who pleaded guilty to a charge of destruction of bank records. He states that at the time of bank's closing he "had just borrowed all the money the bank needed to carry it through the balance of the summer. If Jones had told me he had embezzled the bank's money I could have made it good. I had ample credit and many friends."

My sole object in life was to convert my other holdings into money and firmly establish my son in the banking business in Tempe. Attached to the letter is a statement made by a public accountant showing a shortage in Jones' accounts of $23,448. Kingsbury made reference to the finding of fifty pounds of dynamite on top of the bank vault, and shows that it was bought by Jones in Phoenix "for the purpose of blasting stumps at Buckeye." There is assumption in the letter that the explosive was not used to blow up the bank for fear of killing some one, with addition: "Jones, then, early on the morning of July 27, 1923, burned the books—wrecked the health, happiness, character and fortunes of my own family and left a trail of woe among the trusting patrons that can never be obliterated."

All the past presidents of England's Royal Academy are buried in the crypt of St. Paul's Cathedral.

THE REAL Theodore Roosevelt

AS TOLD IN THE PRIVATE LETTERS OF

Maj. Archie Butt,
Aide and Intimate of "T. R."

Copyright, 1924, by Doubleday, Page & Co.

CAPT. BUTT TO MRS. LEWIS
FORD BUTT
WASHINGTON, D. C.
Dec. 31, 1908.

[In the first part of this letter, published yesterday, Capt. Butt told of the first visit paid by Bernstein to the White House.]

After the President returned, having dismissed the Ambassador, he came in the book which the Kaiser had sent to him, elaborately inscribed on the fly page to the President and signed "William." It was accompanied by a lengthy letter written by a scribe and closed with some remark such as "I am, my dear sir, your sincere friend," and he had added in his own handwriting, "and admirer, William." "This simplifies our personal correspondence in the future," said the President, "for heretofore we have always written to each other in our own handwriting, but I see he has not done so this time. I will let Adeel conduct our correspondence in the future. I am glad he has called quits, for I imagine he writes as laboriously as I do."

PHILLIPS PROMOTED

Did you see that Billy Phillips, to whom I have so often referred, has been made Third Assistant Secretary of State? Graham Johnston of Atlanta is spending a few days with me, and I have got permission to make him a special aide at the White House tomorrow, which will be a busy one, as all the diplomats, justices, Congress, Army and Navy and the public are to be received at the White House. The reception begins at 10 in the morning and runs on anywhere from 5 to 6 in the afternoon. I am sorry for myself, but more sorry for the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Good night and God bless you.

ARCHIBALD

November 1.

Note: I did not mail this letter yesterday, but kept it open to see if there was anything worth recording from New Year's Day. But nothing happened. The line was beautiful and the President received 6666 persons, shaking every one by the hand, and we were all tired and hungry when it was over. Lunch was served in the state dining-room to those of the receiving party, and everyone had a chance to slip away for a cup of hot bouillon and an ice except the President, Mrs. Roosevelt and Brownell and myself. We had to stick it out and not conclude until nearly 3 o'clock.

There were nearly two thousand persons over last year, which would indicate that times are not as hard as they were a year ago or that the hot polio have ceased to think it was due to the President alone that stocks went down. Good-by again.

CAPT. BUTT TO MRS. LEWIS

FORD BUTT
WASHINGTON (D.C.)
Jan. 6, 1909.

My Dear Clara:
I sat next to Miss Morgan at lunch at the White House today, and she is really a most marvelous person. I did not know who she was, for her name meant nothing to me, but I was so impressed with her that after dinner I asked Mrs. Roosevelt and she laughed and said:

"You don't know that you took in to luncheon the daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan?" She struck me as being a woman with a wonderful mind. She really ought to be poor and to be forced to make her own living. I think, however, she does a thousand and one things of importance in the world. For one thing, she asked me about a Miss Berry of Rome, Ga., and expressed horror when I could not tell her anything about her. She is interested in her and says she is the most remarkable woman in the South; that the work she is doing among the poor white people in the way of industrial education is simply wonderful.

MISS MORGAN ACTIVE

She wanted to know is there was no way we could make the public men, our Senators especially, interest themselves in the work she is doing in Rome. I said it was not that which was needed in the South, but money for such work. "Money is the least thing," she said. "We will raise the money if we can get help in other ways." She, a Miss Marbury and Mrs. Harriman are in Washington to get the President interested in the matter of the colony clubs, which is an undertaking just such work as the work which Miss Berry is doing in Rome, namely, to develop the poor white youths in the South, especially in the mountainous districts in Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama.

She simply blew-pencilled conversation, as I told some one later about her. She drew me out as to my detail at the White House, what interested me most in it, and if I said one word too much, or got on a subject she was not interested in she would promptly run her blue pencil through it and bring me to what did interest her. It was the first luncheon at the White House that I ever remember feeling indifferent as to what the President might be saying to the others in general conversation. And there were a lot of interesting people there, too.

Among them were Owen Winter and his wife and three of the dearest little children I ever saw; Mr. Barrett of Baltimore, first secretary to our Embassy at Rome, and with him was his bride of a few days. She was a Miss Warder and a great beauty to my way of thinking; a little uncanny, possibly, for the reason that she is so thin and dark, but very like and graceful. Mr. Barry, the artist, and Mr. and Mrs. White, whoever they are. I am afraid today to acknowledge my ignorance of anyone, since my ignorance concerning Miss Berry.

CHIDED FOR IGNORANCE

After dinner Miss Morgan told the President, when he said to her that he wanted her to meet his fellow-Georgian, that I did not know of Miss M. Berry or her work. "Then I reprimand you and you are no fellow-statesman of mine," he said. I had a little chat with Owen Winter and he told me that we were cousins in a way. It seems that he is a cousin of the Lewis Robertsons in Charleston and he spent most of his time with them while he was writing "Lady Baltimore." He had heard of us and introduced me to his wife as a cousin. He said, by the way, that he was somewhat unpopular in Charleston now, that while his friends there liked the picture he presented of Charleston, many of the people resented it.

There were thirty at the luncheon, the others being largely the young society friends of Miss Ethel. [This letter will continue in tomorrow's installment with an anecdote of Mrs. Roosevelt's refusal to let her daughter go riding unaccompanied with a German officer; also the ways of trouble-makers who tried to sow dissension between the Taft and Roosevelt families.]

SULPHATE SODA MILL

For Pretty Skin—for lovely hands

—a 47-year-old formula that has never been improved

"SHE'S fifty if she's a day—her skin shows it," is a phrase you've often heard.

For age—as all authorities well know—shows quickest in the skin, and the surest way to look your proper age or younger, is to keep the skin soft, supple, smooth and white.

Through 47 years' use, hundreds of thousands of women have proved that the skin is beautified by Espey's Cream.

The skin loses oils in washing. Soaps leave irritation. Wind, sun and water dry and crack and burn the skin. Dust, dirt and germs infect the pores.

Espey's replaces the lost lubrication, soothes the irritation, removes the chaps, helps to clean the pores, takes out the tan and burn and heals the cracks.

The skin is soon smooth, soft, white, supple and elastic.

You note a feeling of improvement.

You don't know California until you've seen the Great Valley

Dear Friend

Now you know what California is like! You have felt the change in atmosphere and spirit—as you came from a more rigorous or more tropic climate. You have seen a veritable Garden of Eden, where agriculture and health are Nature's cherished charges.

Now if you would sound the possibilities of the Golden State, it bids you welcome, and lays its numerous offerings at your feet. You have ideally started with seeing the richness of at least the lower section of the State. You can ideally continue by striking into territory you haven't seen. Seven hundred miles northward, California extends in inviting panorama. Somewhere in California is your ideal climate and your ideal home!

See the Great Central Valley. An Empire unto itself, it basks four hundred miles long, and forty to sixty miles wide—between coastal and interior mountain ranges. Here is the greatest agricultural area of the State, dotted and surrounded with pleasant towns, cities and scenic delights.

To the west of the Great Valley about midway, is the Golden Gate—a mile-wide rift through the mountains which lie between the Valley and the sea. About the Golden Gate are clustered the sister-cities which make up the largest community west of the Mississippi. And through the Golden Gate, two-thirds of the waters of the State complete their passage to the sea.

And through the Golden Gate, two-thirds of the waters of the State complete their passage to the sea.

The Great Central Valley is a treasure-trove of fruit, vegetables and grain. Thousands of its 7,000,000 acres are raising wealth-creating crops. But there are thousands of acres yet untitled, awaiting the plow and irrigation to turn them into smiling little farms, orchards or ranches. Moderate prices prevail in the Great Valley; it is uncrowded and expansive. And somewhere in its fertile stretch you may find the dream home of your hopes.

San Francisco is the metropolis and trading center of the garden area which creates two-thirds of California's agricultural wealth. San Francisco is close to the scenic wonders for which California is famous, and is the key center for trips which penetrate beautiful and productive country, dotted with enterprising typical California communities.

PARTY FOUNDER TELLS HISTORY

Republican Group Formed in Wisconsin Town

Man Who Was There Nears
Century in Age

Recalls Election Parades as Lots of Fun

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 26.—One of the three surviving founders of the Republican party at Ripon, Wis., February 23, 1854, is celebrating his ninety-fifth birthday anniversary in Minneapolis.
A. N. Barney, 1841 Irving avenue, who has lived in Minneapolis thirty-one years, was one of a group of forty or more men who met at District School No. 2 at Ripon when the Republican party had its inception. The other two survivors are Wisconsin residents.
N. J. Judd of Waupun was chairman of the Waupun Free Soil party at the time he went over to the new group. Truman Farnley still lives at Ripon.
After nearly seventy years Mr. Barney still is convinced that it's the only party. He has voted for every Republican Presidential candidate except Benjamin Harrison.

MISSED ONLY HARRISON
"The Republicans did something when Harrison was President that I didn't like, so in 1893 I voted for Cleveland," Mr. Barney said. He continues to read accounts of the lives of his favorites, Lincoln and Roosevelt, and to tell his grandchildren of the days when torchlight parades honored every candidate both before and after his election—if he was a Republican. "But you bet I went back to the old party next election and I've stuck to it ever since," he added. "I voted for Harding and expect to vote for Coolidge."

ALL TOWN JOINED
"There were about forty men at the meeting," Mr. Barney said. "Some were Whigs, some Free Soilers and some few were Democrats. Everyone was ready to stop the spread of slavery up North, even if a new party had to be organized, and the Whigs party was about all in anyway. So we met at the call of A. E. Bovey, a Ripon lawyer. Mr. Judd presided and was chairman of the new group. The party got under way without any dissension from within and there wasn't much opposition from the outside. In fact, most everyone in the town of 300 joined the party."

Some years later a State convention met at Madison attended by nearly 3000, just before Lincoln was nominated for President on the Republican ticket. Mr. Barney did not attend the meeting but participated in the election parade at Ripon. Two hundred men, wearing black capes and small candles on their hats, paraded the main streets bearing American flags and crayon pictures of their candidate. A life and drum corps played for the marchers.

MARCHED MAN INTO OFFICE
"It's a lot different now," Mr. Barney said. "People dress all up and maybe go to hear a candidate talk, but in those days we got right into things and just named a man into office. You felt as if you had more share in getting him elected then."

Mr. Barney also took part in a torch-light parade for Grant before his election. He served in the quartermaster's division in the Civil War, and was in Atlanta when Gen. Sherman took the city.

"It was almost as exciting as when we heard up in Ripon three days after it happened, that Lincoln had been elected," he said. He lives with his son, J. L. Barney, and his daughter.

DIVORCE ENDS WAR ROMANCE

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
DES MOINES, Feb. 26.—Pretty Blanche Palmer, formerly of Paris, who was wooed and won while Germany's "Big Bertha" was dropping shells in the Avenue de Wilson, was divorced from Roy Palmer by Judge Lester L. Thompson in Polk District Court here.
Judge Thompson also restored to her her maiden name, Blanche Jerlaud.
The Palmers were married in Paris June 21, 1918, just before he sailed home on an army transport after his service with the American Expeditionary Force.
He is the son of O. K. Palmer, secretary of the Des Moines Automobile Club.
Married in the romance of war, they sailed for Hoboken under the colors of victory and then came to Des Moines.
"Our romantic love soon palled in the commonplace life of private citizens," Blanche Jerlaud Palmer testified on the stand.
"I was so in love with my soldier husband—soon, oh, so soon, he tired of me and then he tried to get a divorce."
Palmer originally brought the divorce action, but re-anthelated in the Army before it came up for trial.
He was not present at the hearing and Mrs. Palmer was given a decree on her cross-petition.
"Will you return to France?" Judge Thompson asked her after he had granted her decree.
"I cannot say yet," she replied.
"I like America and I like the Americans just as much as I did July 14, 1918, when they paraded in Paris after their victory at Chateau Thierry. I do not think them all unfaithful, but my mother—she lives in France. Perhaps I shall return to her."

MORMON FLAT DAM

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PHOENIX, Feb. 26.—The foundation excavation for the Mormon Flat Dam on Salt River has been completed and workmen now are cleaning out sand and loose rock in preparation for the pouring of cement, which is to be started within a fortnight. The deepest point to clean bedrock is sixty feet, but the average is much less. From the stream level, the dam will rise 155 feet, serving only for backing up about 30,000 acre feet of water and thus supplementing the Roosevelt Dam, permitting much better utilization of the hydroelectric plant at Roosevelt. Little water is passing Roosevelt at present and any inflow at Mormon Flat readily is handled by large pumps.

DEPUTY TARGET
IN KILLING CASEMrs. Potegian Declares He Made PromiseSays Freedom Assured if She ConfessedAlleged Conversation Prior to Arrest Told

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

FRESNO, Feb. 26.—Repeating a conversation that took place between herself and Edward S. Melchionan, a deputy sheriff, on the night before her arrest, Mrs. Eliza Potegian, on trial in Superior Court charged with the poisoning of her stepdaughter Margaret, declared that Melchionan promised that he would obtain her release if she would tell him she had "done this thing."

"He told me that he knew all the attorneys and lawyers and officials and that he would have me released," said the woman. "I love you, I like you, he told me."

"He came to the sofa where I was sitting and lifted me up."

"How long did this visit you had with Melchionan last?" asked Conley.

"About two hours," Mrs. Potegian replied.

"What did Melchionan say and where were you sitting? Was anyone else in the room?" asked Conley.

"Promised Release"

Melchionan was sitting on a chair. I was on a couch. I asked him where his wife was and he said she only understood English and it was no use for her to be there. He told me repeatedly that if I would tell him everything, he would have me freed. He came over to the couch and lifted me up and said 'I love you.' I went home about 9 o'clock, I think. I didn't have a timepiece. Melchionan and another man, I think it was his son, went home with me."

"Who arrested you?" she was asked.

"Mr. King and Miss Grue."

"Another Promise"

Mrs. Potegian then related that she had no breakfast that morning and had nothing to eat or drink until evening. Melchionan, she said, had two private talks with her and that after the examination by the District Attorney, Melchionan told her that two books on which he laid his hands contained all the evidence and if she would tell him everything he would destroy them.

"Tell me just one thing, he said and I will have you released. He told me of several others that he had released."

Philip Conley, for the defense, put question after question to bring out the fact that in the examination by the District Attorney, Melchionan was in a fatigued state as evidenced by a nose bleed and that she was without food and water the entire day up to about 6 o'clock p.m.

Petition Cites Abuse Against Rail Franchise

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 26.—

Nearly 400 Bakersfieldans living in the communities along both sides of the Santa Fe Railroad tracks, between F and C streets, joined by the Kern County Union High School faculty, at a meeting held in the city hall last night, petitioned the City Council to start proceedings to annul the franchise under which the Santa Fe operates its train and maintains its railroad tracks through the city. The petition was read and formally presented to the Council by Atty. Alfred Slemmon.

The petition charges that Santa Fe Railroad officials are imposing upon the city charter of 1915 and include in its bill of indictment among other alleged offenses in effect, the following:

While the franchise granted the Santa Fe the right to construct main-line tracks and operate its trains along Fifteenth street from F to B streets, the railroad company is abusing that concession by excessively operating switch engines back and forth jeopardizing the life and limb of motorists, passengers and school children going from high school.

Santa Ana Officers Base Theory on Fact That Dead
Man's Money and Auto are Gone

SANTA ANA, Feb. 26.—Belief that Edward J. Rubien, 38 years of age, of Montebello, had been murdered and his body placed on the railroad tracks near Santa Ana was expressed by Orange county officials last night after an all-day investigation.

The murder theory is based, they said, on the facts that Rubien had no business that would take him to Santa Ana; that his automobile is missing, likewise his money; and that there was little blood near the spot where his body lay. It had been horribly mangled by a train and was almost unrecognizable.

Rubien was salesman for the Fuller Brush Company, and had been canvassing in Belvedere Gardens from headquarters at Whittier. He was last seen alive at 1 p.m. Monday when he left home in his car to return to Belvedere Gardens.

Found by Workers

His body was found by section hands near the McCloy street crossing of the Santa Fe in the edge of Santa Ana and appeared to have been dragged some distance by the train. The clothing

PHANTOM THIEF CONFESSES
Burglar Who Terrorized Santa Barbara and Pasadena Tells of Exciting Experiences

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 26.—Arthur Leppie, who has been in the County Jail three weeks while officers endeavored to prove that he was the "Phantom Burglar" who robbed a score of Santa Barbara homes a year ago, confessed this morning, just as he was leaving for San Quentin prison to serve a term on a charge of receiving stolen property, to which he pleaded guilty on Monday.

In a signed statement, entitled "Yes I am the phantom burglar," Leppie told of his career of crime in Santa Barbara county but refused to divulge information of his activities in Pasadena.

"Once I was searched by two Los Angeles detectives," he declared, "when I took a day off from the job in Santa Barbara. I only had one diamond on me and when I saw them coming I put it in my mouth and spit it out with a wad of gum I was already chewing. Later I picked it up."

The most exciting experience I ever had was in Pasadena where I entered a house to rob it," he declared. "There already was one burglar in the house and I had all I could do to get away with my life."

In his confession Leppie declared that he removed loot valued at $25,000 of which $10,000 has been recovered in Ventura county under his direction.

9 O'clock Shut-Down at Border Indorsed

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 26.—Federal action to close the international border each night at 9 o'clock, in effect, was indorsed today by the County Federation of Women's Clubs, in session here in a telegram to Congressmen Swing who advocates the earlier closing hour. Mrs. E. C. Upp, president of the Federation said in the telegram:

"Mrs. John C. Urquhart, president of California Federation of Women's Clubs, met in San Diego, joins in plea for early closing of the border, voicing the sentiment of 76,000 California clubwomen. That nearly 6000 juveniles have been prevented crossing the international line by our officials in the past five months proves the urgency of drastic control."

It was learned today that numbers of government operatives have been studying the border conditions for some time and that both the Justice and Treasury departments are in favor of the 9 o'clock closing law.

Officers Find Distillery in Ranch Tunnel

EL CENTRO, Feb. 26.—Sheriff Gillett asserts that in enforcing the Wright Act in Imperial county he finds in almost every new case a new way of secreting stills and liquor. The Sheriff and his deputies recently found a fully equipped distillery beneath the ground in an alfalfa field near Brawley.

Armed with a search warrant, the officers made what they believed was a thorough search of the ranch of several acres, but went away without success. They discovered what appeared to be a cave. They found a long tunnel with a large chamber at one end containing a still of considerable capacity, sixteen gallons of whiskey and several barrels of mash.

Five men were arrested, including S. Hamamoto, J. Maringo, W. L. Comes, D. H. Bickel and Frank Kast. Hamamoto and Maringo are charged with the manufacture of the still, but the other three remained in jail pending their hearing.

PASADENA, Feb. 26.—Delegates from various parts of the State convened in the Hotel Green this afternoon for the opening session of the sixteenth annual convention of the State Humane Association.

Soon after the meeting was called to order and the president, John Partridge, had delivered his annual address, the society adjourned out of respect to the late Lloyd Richardson Macy, prominent Pasadena and director of the association, whose funeral was conducted today. A large number of the delegates attended the funeral.

Mr. Macy had for years been one of the most enthusiastic members of the Humane Association. He was one of the founders of the Pasadena society.

President Partridge's opening address and the reading of a message from Calvin Coolidge commending the society for the work it is performing were the most important events on today's short program.

Mr. Partridge urged that increased efforts be extended to prevent cruelty to animals, and especially to live stock as it is transported from the range to the market.

The United States government reports that there is steady decline in the use of beef in this country," declared the president.

The report shows that in fifteen range stock States an average of ten cattle per thousand die of starvation. Approximately 100,000 cattle are slaughtered in the United States each year for food and those climatically. The rest are bled to death while conscious."

The next session of the three-day convention will be held tomorrow evening, at which time Mrs. Gertrude L. Squier will be one of the principal speakers.

EL CENTRO, Feb. 26.—For the third time since he filed on a homestead near Niland in 1916, Mack C. Harris is defending a contest over the land in the El Centro office. The first two times were three-cornered, with Alfred Ogden and Harold V. U. Lien contesting with Harris for the 160-acre, asserting simultaneous entry. The final decision of the secretary of the Interior after the matter was argued by the three men, was that the land should be divided among the three men.

Harris bought Lien's interest and finally obtained possession of eighty acres. Now Mrs. Mae Martin, wife of Alvin Martin, a stevedore of the Niland district, is contesting for Harris's interest, asserting that Harris has not complied with the Federal regulations.

Lowest bids for the removal of 7,000,000 cubic yards of silt from the channels and turning basin of the harbor total $250,000, a reduction of approximately $250,000 from what would have been considered a reasonable cost for the volume of work that the city proposes.

The United Dredging Company of New York and Los Angeles will get the contract for deepening the harbor. The company's bid was $249,000, or a total of $171,498.80 for the removal of 7,000,000 cubic yards of silt.

"THE TIMES" STAND FOR BOULDER DAM PROJECT

Propaganda of Political Schemers Made Ridiculous by Recital of Real Facts

Political schemers and selfish interests have been spreading propaganda to the effect that the Los Angeles Times and Harry Chandler, publisher and general manager, are opposed to the Boulder Canyon project. These misrepresentations are not only without the slightest basis in fact, but are ridiculous in the light of the real facts.

The first movement to bring the project to control the Colorado River was made by the Los Angeles Times. The Times has supported and backed the project ever since. In the past five or six years the Times has published hundreds of columns of articles favoring the project. It has the aid of engineers and map makers in its efforts to promote the project.

CONQUERING THE COLORADO RIVER

BY HARRY CHANDLER

The Colorado River in the United States and through the Colorado project, the energy will be developed in the best and most economical manner. Hydroelectric energy from the Colorado River is backed by nature's own perpetual source of replenishment. Coal mines may be exhausted, but so long as rain and snow fall the Colorado River will continue to flow and will continue to provide energy.

POWER FOR NATION

I have heard a statement that one-third of the hauling capacity of the American railroads is used in hauling coal. A permanent and cheaper supply of energy is needed to enable the country to go ahead with its great industrial and constructive program. This permanent supply must be hydroelectric energy.

PHASES SHOWN

The Colorado River project will remove the lower end of the Colorado River from the lower end of the Colorado River. It will make the Colorado River a navigable waterway. It will make the Colorado River a source of power. It will make the Colorado River a source of water.

ELECTRIC AGE NEAR

Low cost power is the great desideratum in the rapidly approaching age of electricity. Ability to transmit energy for long distances will enable the harnessed Colorado River to provide electric appliances and conveniences just as readily in the northernmost counties of California as in Los Angeles. And here it is soon coming when not only railroads will be electrified but also the horsepower as much as the horsepower.

Mrs. Ada Blackjack and Her Son Moving narrative told of fight against disease and starvation in Polar region.

ADA BLACKJACK HITS BACK

Esquimo Woman Denies Noice's Charge She Let Knight Starve to Death on Wrangell Island

Ada Blackjack, sole survivor of the ill-starred Wrangell Island expedition, swam up out of the mist again yesterday. Civilization has hardly heard of her since her name first appeared in the dispatches sent south from Nome last September by Harold Noice of Los Angeles, leader of the relief expedition which, like so many others in the history of polar exploration, arrived too late. She tells her story to the world today in her own words for the first time.

Noice, in his first account of his expedition, praised Ada for her devotion to Lorne Knight, whom she nursed through six months of fatal illness. His body was found on Wrangell Island, as Ada had laid it out in his tent waiting for the rescue party. Five months later, in a statement made at Englewood, N. J., on the 11th inst., Noice accused her of letting Knight starve to death.

"Other allegations made by Noice need not be repeated. I don't care about that," said Ada here yesterday in her first comment on the charges. "None of it is true, I didn't want to marry any of the boys; I didn't try to marry any of them; but why talk of it? They are all dead now. What hurts me is that it should be said I grew fat on the food he might have had."

First Let Noice himself tell how he first saw her: "It was 8 p.m. August 23, when we saw something moving on the beach. At first we were not sure whether the object really moved or whether it was but a wraith-figure of the fog, but as we drew near we saw that it was indeed a human figure. It moved slowly toward the beach and held out its hands toward us in dumb supplication."

It was like that again yesterday. A little woman not five feet tall, with the high, broad cheekbones, the slanting brown eyes, and the rich bluish color of her face under her dusky skin—and she is a full-blooded Eskimo—stood alone and uncertain on the shore of a vast, dreary ocean of uncertainty, ignorance and incredulity.

When Noice landed last August on Wrangell Island Ada's first words to him were these: "There is nobody here but me, I am all alone. Knight, he died on June 22."

There had been four in the expedition. Three had set out over the winter ice for the shores of Siberia, distance some hundred miles. They never came back, they never arrived. Perhaps frozen in the ice pack, they still drift aimlessly to and fro in that desolate sea. Perhaps their bones long since have been resting on the floor of the ocean.

The fourth, Lorne Knight of Portland Or., was left behind. He was weak from scurvy, unfit for food. Listening to Ada's story of how she nursed Knight for six months up to the time of his death, Noice, in his first dispatch, wrote that it was the saddest story he had ever heard. Now comes Noice and, in a statement made public at Englewood, N. J., says that "he believes the woman deliberately refused to cook, hunt or visit traps for Knight and that in consequence Knight died of starvation."

"Though his body was found in a severely emaciated condition, the woman, Noice says, was fat and had an abundance of hard-boiled eggs and tea stowed away for herself." The quotation is from a special dispatch to the Times published here on the 12th inst.

Mrs. Blackjack came south this fall from Alaska to Seattle, where

ORDERS HARBOR QUIZ SUBPOENAS

Keyes Ready to Give Facts to Grand Jury

City Attorney Also to Push Doherty Inquiry

Action on McKee Case is Delayed by Cryer

The first subpoenas for appearance before the grand jury in the investigation of Los Angeles Harbor affairs and the conduct of President McKee of the Board of Harbor Commissioners were ordered prepared yesterday by Dist. Atty. Keyes following the impounding of the 1924 county grand jury. At the same time an announcement was made at the City Attorney's office that the city is ready to move against E. L. Doherty's Pan-American Petroleum Company's seven-acre lease in the harbor.

Both actions were taken after Mayor Cryer's promise of decisive and final action in the McKee matter failed to materialize yesterday.

While definite statements were scarce, there were plenty of intimations from the Mayor that something will happen to Commissioner McKee in the next forty-eight hours. The worst that could be obtained from Mayor Cryer.

MAYOR'S EXPLANATION

One of the explanations of Mayor Cryer's inactivity yesterday was that he is waiting for an answer from the man he has in mind to fill the vacancy on the harbor board if he removes Mr. McKee. The City Hall rumor had yesterday that C. J. Golden, member of the harbor board, is slated for Mr. McKee's job and that O. M. Souden, president of the Union Trust National Bank, will be asked by the Mayor to take the position vacated by Mr. Golden.

The Mayor's announcement that no action would be taken during the day came after a long conference in his office with Kent C. Parrott and H. H. Kinney. Mr. Parrott is known to be the Mayor's political advisor and Mr. Kinney is the Mayor's secretary.

The revocation of the thirty-year lease granted by the Board of Harbor Commissioners to the Pan-American Petroleum Company to seven acres of land at Los Angeles Harbor was recommended yesterday to former Judge Charles Wellborn, attorney for the oil company, by acting City Attorney Whitehead who advised the company to apply for and accept, in lieu of the much-attacked franchise, a revocable permit.

In case this plan is not accepted by the oil company, acting City Attorney Whitehead yesterday said the city would make an appeal to the courts to protect the city's interests and submit the question of the legality of the long-term lease to the courts.

The company received the lease on pier No. 1 from the harbor board last June, in spite of the fact that the pier was under construction. The company has spent $150,000 in building a wharf at its 1200-foot frontage on the lease which will be the property of the city and the money will be returned to the company from dockage fees charged by the city.

WHITEHEAD STATEMENT

Acting City Attorney Whitehead said: "The legality of the harbor board's lease to the Pan-American Petroleum Company having been seriously questioned, we believe that the objection to the lease will be met and justice done the company which already has invested in good faith, $250,000 on the property it is leasing. The revocation of the lease and the granting of a revocable permit. The permit can be revoked at any time by the city on one year's notice."

PLAN SOLDIER MEMORIAL

Delegates of Veterans' Societies Hear Details of County's $500,000 Building Project

About seventy delegates representing posts of the American Legion, Grand Army of the Republic and Spanish War Veterans gathered at the Los Angeles Athletic Club last night at a meeting called by the Allied Architects to discuss plans for the $500,000 Soldiers' Memorial Building.

The building is to be erected by the county through a fund of $500,000 provided in the 1923 budget by the Board of Supervisors. Practically every veterans' post in Los Angeles county was represented, according to Burton Pitts, chairman of the memorial building committee.

A critical questionnaire on the project submitted to the Board of Supervisors by the Municipal League of Los Angeles, Anthony Pratt, secretary, was replied to at the meeting by Supervisor Bean.

LEAGUE ASKS DETAILS

The league's letter stated its executive committee had been informed "that without the knowledge of the entire Board of Supervisors, one member of the board had plans prepared for a soldiers' memorial building, which, it is alleged, will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000, and for which $500,000 has already been set aside in this year's county budget; that in the ordering of these plans no competition at all, as to design, was invited and that a session (last night) is to be held behind closed doors."

The league asked to know what Legion posts had petitioned the Board of Supervisors for the memorial building; also as to ownership, maintenance, expense, in whose charge it is to be placed, for what purpose it may be used, and whether outlying posts of the county are to have a similar building.

Supervisor Bean said the project was authorized by the entire body of supervisors, that the sum set

Accused Man Denies Part in Fatal Hold-up

Fourth Member of Gang is Said on Way East

The third bandit suspected of having taken part in the attempted robbery of the Beverly street office of the Merchants' National Bank last week, as a result of which Patrolman Glean Bond was shot and later died, was captured in a downtown hotel last night by police detectives.

Surrounded on the second floor of a hotel near Tenth and Los Angeles streets, Oscar Perry, 29 years of age, gave himself up without a struggle. Traced, according to Captain of Detectives George Hom, when clues that led to many different hotels in the city were being checked, the asserted bandit readily admitted his identity but denied he had taken any part in the attempted robbery and shooting.

ALIBI IS SOUGHT

Taken to the City Jail, he declared that he and his wife, who was also in custody, left their home at 10 o'clock on the morning of the shooting, which occurred shortly after 12 o'clock, noon, and visited the different places downtown together until early afternoon. He said he visited his brother's room at 337 South Hill street, later, and found Louis Perry suffering from an accidental wound. He telephoned for a doctor, he said, and left. Louis Perry was taken into custody last Saturday. Oscar Perry's residence at 3235 East Fourth street.

Asking in the capture last night were Detective Lieutenants Edwards, Hoy, Harrell and Trainer, led by Capt. Hom. After Perry had made his statement, Capt. Hom said that police had discovered witnesses who would swear that Perry had left his home early in the morning of the day of the shooting and that his wife did not know where he was.

One member of the bandit gang is still at large but the police believe his capture will come before long. Capt. Hom said positive information is in their possession that Jack Johnson, the man wanted in trying to make his way East, probably through Texas, and that his apprehension is expected momentarily.

Shortly after the arrest of Oscar Perry last night, Mrs. George A. McBride, wife of another of the band suspects, was released by Capt. Hom.

Efforts to obtain the release of Homer Redman, lying in the Receiving Hospital, who was wounded in the chest, were started yesterday by his attorney, who served notice on Capt. Hom that he is attempting to obtain a writ of habeas corpus for the prisoner.

Prof. Larkin is Suddenly Taken Sick

Prof. Edgar Lucien Larkin of Pasadena, world famous astronomer and author of "Popular Studies in Astronomy," and who for many years has been located at the Echo Mountain Observatory, was stricken with illness yesterday morning.

He was taken to the Pacific Hospital where it was said that despite the fact that he is nearly 90 years of age his condition is not serious and might respond to treatment without the necessity of resorting to an operation.

Each night he gave lectures at Mt. Lowe for the Pacific Electric Railway. Larkin's condition is said to be improving.

Height-Limit Building for Seventh and Flower to be Erected by Sun Company on Leased Site

A ninety-nine-year lease on the southwest corner of Seventh and Flower streets, involving an aggregate rental of $10,047,000 and the erection of a modern height-limit office building to cost about $1,500,000, has been acquired by the Sun Realty Company from Mrs. Mary C. Young, and Mrs. Mary Young Moore, according to an announcement made by I. Eisner, president of the Sun Realty Company.

This lease, which involves an annual rental of more than $100,000, is the third largest in the history of Los Angeles and holds the record for Seventh-street property west of Broadway. Robert Baker, well-known realty broker, handled the deal.

The Sun Realty Company plans to improve the property immediately with a twelve-story and basement Class A office and store building, which will have a frontage on Seventh street of 167 1/2 feet, with a depth of 110 feet on Flower street. Provision is made in the lease for the opening of a twenty-foot alley on the west side of the proposed building, ten feet of the frontage leased by the Sun Realty Company having been reserved for this purpose.

PLANS ARE RUSHED

Architects Curlett and Beelman already have completed preliminary plans for the new structure, which will be of steel frame construction, with both street frontages finished in terra cotta. The main entrance to the building will be located about midway of the building on the Seventh-street side, with an additional side entrance from Flower street.

Fourth Member of Gang is Said on Way East

The third bandit suspected of having taken part in the attempted robbery of the Beverly street office of the Merchants' National Bank last week, as a result of which Patrolman Glean Bond was shot and later died, was captured in a downtown hotel last night by police detectives.

Surrounded on the second floor of a hotel near Tenth and Los Angeles streets, Oscar Perry, 29 years of age, gave himself up without a struggle. Traced, according to Captain of Detectives George Hom, when clues that led to many different hotels in the city were being checked, the asserted bandit readily admitted his identity but denied he had taken any part in the attempted robbery and shooting.

Taken to the City Jail, he declared that he and his wife, who was also in custody, left their home at 10 o'clock on the morning of the shooting, which occurred shortly after 12 o'clock, noon, and visited the different places downtown together until early afternoon. He said he visited his brother's room at 337 South Hill street, later, and found Louis Perry suffering from an accidental wound. He telephoned for a doctor, he said, and left. ## ADA BLACKJACK TELLS HER SIDE

Eskimo Declares She Did Her Best to Save Knight

Denies Noice's Charge She Left Him to Starve

Tells Moving Story of Last Days on Wrangell

The sentences correctly formed, though short and simple to the limit of brevity.

"While I was in Seattle," she said yesterday, "I made myself known to the parents of Knight. They heard my story of his last days. They paid my railway fare from Seattle so that they might talk with me. They heard me and they believed me. They know that I told the truth, whatever Mr. Noice may think."

Tears rolled down her cheeks and her lips trembled but the voice was still steady.

"Knight," she continued, "was left behind because he was weak and sick. He had scurvy. For food, he had only hardtack, train oil and tea. That was bad for him. He grew weaker. He could not go out to hunt or trap."

"I didn't know how to trap. I was hired to sew skins, to make clothes for them from the pelts of the animals they trapped and shot. But I learned how to trap. Oh, if we had only had a native boy with us to help, then it would never have happened."

TOO SICK TO TRAP

"I trapped fox for Knight, and gave him all the tender pieces of meat. I hunted guile eggs for him and fed them to him. I hauled wood for fire. With the work and anxiety, I grew sick myself. For a month I could not make the rounds of the traps."

"That meant no fresh food for Knight. His stomach could not hold the train oil and hardtack. He grew weaker. For a month before the seals and the ducks came with summer, I caught no fox."

"I was very weak and sick myself. I don't think I could have pulled through it if I hadn't been pulled through by my little boy at home. I had to live for him."

"But that month was the death of Knight. He never got over it. Day by day he grew weaker. For the last two days he was unconscious. Before that, while he still had his mind and could talk, he thanked me for what I had done for him. He told me that if he ever lived to get back to his people, he would see that I was not forgotten. He told me, if he died, to take care of myself and try to live until the rescue party came."

"I kept a diary in English. Knight kept a diary. I never read what he wrote in it. I gave my diary and Knight's diary to Mr. Noice with my own hands. He says he found them on the floor of the tent. That is not true. I gave them to him. Would I have done that, if I had known they held words that could be used against me?"

ASKS DIARY BACK

"During the month while I was too sick to trap, Knight was sometimes angry with me. I suppose he thought I was shirking, that I ought to have got him fresh food myself, but I was too weak to get it."

"I have written to Mr. Noice, asking for my diary back. He never answered. Then I wrote to Capt. Stefansson. He has promised to get my diary back."

"It is on the evidence contained in Knight's diary that Noice based his charges against Ada. One understood from her narrative yesterday what sort of entries a sick and lonely man might have made."

"When the seals and ducks came," she resumed, "I got fresh meat again and grew fat. That is why Mr. Noice found me in good flesh and the body of Knight so thin and poor."

"That is all I have to tell, except that Knight's mother and father, who heard first what I am telling you now, believed me."

Wrangell Island is an uninhabited, outlying block of land in the Arctic Ocean, seventy-five miles long and thirty miles wide, about ninety miles distant from the north coast of Siberia. Capt. Vilhjalmur Stefansson, perceiving its possibilities as a base for airplane and radio work, as well as a trapping ground for valuable furs sent four white men to colonize it and thereby to re-establish former British claims of suzerainty, never definitely established. The island has been described as the "Yap of the Polar seas, claimed by Russia, sought by Canada, and under scrutiny by the British Empire, demanded by some American, and watched by Japan."

Within a few years it may be a pivotal factor in airplane traffic direct from London to Japan and Asia, via the North Pole.

RESCUE BLOCKED

In the colonizing party were Allan Crawford of Toronto, in command; Lorne Knight, Fredrick Maurer, and Milton Galle, the last three all Americans. Noice describes Knight as well-versed in every phase of polar work. Maurer had been one of Stefansson's crew in a former expedition and had lived six months on the island in 1914. Galle was a boy of 18.

At Nome in the summer of 1921, the four bought a dog team, engaged Ada Blackjack, who was separated from her husband, chartered the power schooner Silver Wave, Capt. Hammond, and were landed on Wrangell Island.

"This," wrote Noice, "is all we know about them, for due to personal financial difficulties and to the slowness of the Canadian government in extending support, Mr. Stefansson was unable to outfit a supply vessel until August 18, 1922, and as the ice conditions were very dense that year, this date proved too late."

As the second winter dragged out its black length, the food supply grew steadily shorter, until it visibly could not suffice until the spring of 1923. Knight began to show signs of scurvy.

On Jan. 7, 1923, in the depth of the midwinter darkness, Crawford and Knight set out for Siberia. The ice was very rough, Crawford froze his fingers, and Knight was very weak. The attempt failed, and they returned.

After a week's rest, Crawford, Maurer and Galle tried it again, leaving the weakened Knight behind with Ada. "With sufficient food," writes Noice, "to last them until spring."

"Ada nursed Knight until he died on June 22," Noice's first narrative continued. "His condition became so grave that the opportunity to secure fresh food with me breakup of the ice came too late."

Voters of the twenty-fourth municipal improvement district, including Hermosa, El Sereno, Farmdale, Sierra Vista and Rose Hill districts, tomorrow will ballot on the proposed $114,000 bond issue to acquire Schusterman Park. At the miniature art exhibit at the Biltmore Art Salon last night, first prize was awarded to Clara Shepherd Shaler of Pasadena, and honorable mention went to Gertrude L. Little of 4417 Prospect avenue, Hollywood.

Miss Shaler's painting, "A Portrait Study," was described by the judges as "a well-drawn and progressive study which expresses wonderful beauty." It depicted a maiden reclining in pensive mood.

The honorable mention, "Lilife," portrayed an adorable little baby gazing with awe and wonder at some lilies whose reflections are mirrored in the waters of a brooklet. It also conveys a sense of the child's accordance with the flowers in that they are blended with the same delicacy of feeling.

Miss Emma Stuenkel, miniature painter and member of the California Society of Miniature Painters, is adding Edson in the organization of the Biltmore Art Salon, curator of the Biltmore Art and former curator of the National Academy of Design in New York, were the judges.

County Leaders Indicate Hancock Park as Site of Proposed Structure

Unless action is taken by the City Council at once, the proposed $10,000,000 county museum will be placed in Hancock Park instead of Exposition Park, it was indicated yesterday at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

The Supervisors asked County Counsel Blaisdell for an opinion as to whether the change in location would be legal.

Hancock Park, located on Wilshire Boulevard, was recently given to the county for a playground. It is outside the present city boundaries.

The City Council recently passed an ordinance providing for the location of the museum, but it was vetoed by Mayor Cryer on account of opposition by the Playground Commission. The Council had had the matter before it for three months.

I have advocated the consummation of the Colorado River project since it was first proposed some ten years ago. The more I consider it the surer I am that the work should be undertaken without delay.

It is significant that in its larger aspects the project has unanimous approval. Engineers agree that it presents no engineering difficulties. Economists agree that the benefits to accrue would be many times greater than the investment; that every dollar expended would return many times. It is only concerning the smaller aspects of the enterprise that controversy arises, and it is these comparatively small details that constitute the greater difficulty.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Good the Second The leftover roast may be used and the slices dipped in hot butter and fried in hot oil. This is a good and also a method of using up any roast.

A Real Kitchen

When knobs come off of other kitchen utensils, screw through the hole inside and place a cork in the hole. This will work as the old handle and nothing foretells.

More Nutritious

When making oatmeal, use milk instead of all water. It will be much more nutritious.

IN THE contemplated purchase of a piano, it is well to consider every member of the family—those who can play by hand as well as those who cannot do so. That is why the Gul-bran-sen "Registering" Piano is such a revelation to every music-loving home. It is one of the greatest achievements in piano evolution.

The Gulbransen, as a piano, is an instrument of refinement and completeness—complete for hand playing. It has an unusually sweet tone and an especially sensitive action.

The Gulbransen, as a "Registering" Piano, is played with a roll, enabling you to register your individual touch on the keys, the same as though you were playing by hand. Just think of the pleasure of being able to play any make of reproducing roll as well as all makes of standard player rolls, emphasizing each note with your personal touch. Heretofore this was possible only with human fingers.

While "registering touch" is the outstanding feature of the Gulbransen "Registering" Piano, the principle of construction makes you master of the piece you are playing.

Can you visualize such a marvelous instrument in your home? Come in and hear it.

Committing ThiefDeclares Prisoners Do Not Finish SentencesVollmer Explains Charter Provision Applies

Charges that prisoners were being released from the City Jail and the Lincoln Heights Jail before they had completed serving their sentences were made by Presiding Judge Crawford yesterday in open court.

The charges were made by Judge Crawford when he pronounced sentence upon L. A. Brown, who pleaded guilty to stealing a shotgun from a sporting goods store. Judge Crawford said: "I am going to sentence you to ninety days in jail, although I doubt whether you will ever stay in that long. There seems to be a habit grown up lately of releasing prisoners before they have served their sentences."

SEES NO REASON
"What the reason for this is I am at a loss to explain. And although I don't like to see the decisions of this court ignored, I am going to take a chance and sentence you to ninety days anyway."

In a brief comment upon the statement made by Judge Crawford, Chief Vollmer declared that

WILSHIRE STORES FAVORED

Council Committee Tentatively Agrees to Business Places on Section of Boulevard

The Public Works Committee of the City Council yesterday afternoon tentatively agreed to recommend that business establishments be located on Wilshire Boulevard between Westlake Park and Western avenue provided the property owners in that section actively support proceedings for the widening of Wilshire Boulevard west of Western avenue and restricting western Wilshire Boulevard to residences, flats and apartments.

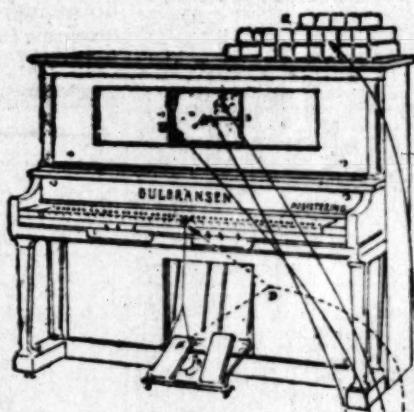

John P. Kennedy, Marco Hellman and other representatives of the Wilshire Boulevard property owners east of Western avenue said that they would accept the condition and work for the widening proceedings west of Western avenue.

The Council recently had before it a 90 per cent property owners' petition asking for the zoning change to permit business structures on Wilshire Boulevard between Westlake Park and Western avenue.

the judge was right in saying that some prisoners were released before the prescribed number of days in jail were served by them.

MAY WORK OUT TIME
He explained that due to a provision of the city charter a system is in existence whereby prisoners may work out their time.

"The city is allowed to work prisoners eight hours each day, for which they receive $2. If they have been sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or spend 100 days in jail and they work twenty-five days then they have automatically worked out their sentence. The charter provision states that the $2 earned each day will be applied on account of the fine imposed. That is the simple explanation of the whole thing."

for Silks of Employer Leads to Court

The pendant of Miriam Martin, an attractive young domestic, for pretty clothes, silk pajamas and jewelry yesterday resulted in her being taken before Judge Avery of the Superior Court, when she was arraigned and pleaded guilty to two counts of grand larceny.

According to Dep. Dist. Atty. Hill, Miss Martin came to Los Angeles a few weeks ago from Canada with two other girls. She was said to have secured a position of maid in the household of Mrs. Harry Kohn, 115 South Hobart Boulevard. After working one day, Hill said, Mrs. Kohn reported that Miss Martin and ten dresses, two pairs of slippers, silk pajamas and a silk kimono were missing from the house.

Miss Martin was asserted to have been wearing part of the stolen apparel when she was arrested January 12, last, at 1119 Ingraham street. She was also charged with the grand larceny of jewelry valued at $25, belonging to Mrs. W. M. Young of 1412 Laurel avenue.

According to Hill, the two girls who came here with Miss Martin have been arrested on similar charges and cases against them are now pending in the Superior Court.

Miss Martin filed application for probation and the hearing was set for March 21.

YOU CAN'T LOSE

All business is a gamble, but in none is there more of an element of risk than in farming. First, you gamble on the soil, then on the seed; then that it rains. You bet your money and your toil that you get a crop and, even after you get it, you are wagering that you can sell it at a profit. That's the game that farmers in most communities play. But in the Salt River Valley of Arizona it's different. The element of risk in farming here has been removed.

There's a "CAN'T LOSE" proposition awaiting the farmers in this lush valley of year 'round harvests. The soil is of proven quality; your seed is the best; water for your crops is assured under this great irrigation project—the Roosevelt dam stores enough water for a three-year supply of all lands. There are no pests. Even the marketing problem has been solved because this valley grows crops of a semi-tropical nature. There is an ever-apparent world shortage in the farm products of this community and that means top prices and bigger returns.

Lands Earn $100 per Acre Each Year

Three hundred thousand acres under the great Roosevelt project earned an average of $100 per acre in 1923. That was not an unusual return, either—just average production. This valley is ready to prove these things. That's why civic organizations of Phoenix—the Salt River Valley-Arizona Club, the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce and the Phoenix Real Estate Board—have opened a branch office in Los Angeles, where an agriculture exhibit has been arranged. This office is under the management of the Phoenix Chamber. It is located at

BLAZING SEAT

Truckman and Dog Think of Sahara Sun Until Fire Draws Notice

George Benjamin, driver of one of the trucks of the Union Roofing Supply Company, was driving from work last night. It had been a hard day and he was thinking of home and supper.
After supper he would take a look at that leaky gas tank.

Awfully hot for so late in the afternoon, he thought. It began to grow warmer. Even the dog on the seat beside Benjamin began to show unease. Apparently a million ants or bees were biting the dog.

Benjamin took a look and then he jumped. The whole seat was on fire. He threw the seat into the street. A few buckets of water put out the fire. Benjamin placed some boards over the former seat and drove home.

FIRE ENGINES

As a result of Fire Chief Scott's recent ruling that city fire-fighting to go out of the city limits without special permission, the Los Angeles order followed when it was learned that 80 per cent of the calls answered by the city department at Gardner Junction in Hollywood were to fires outside the city limits.

The apparatus will be delivered, one in sixty and the second in ninety days. A survey is to be made to determine the location for the proposed fire stations in order that they may be placed in the

That is the joyful cry of thousands

Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and a famous old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, sootheing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tab-

GUILT ADMITTED
BY TWO OIL MEN

Square Deal Fraud Charge
Pleas Are Made

Pair Expected to Testify for GovernmentPostoffice Inspector Takes Stand at Trial

Joseph F. Gendron and George K. Nickerson, two of four men indicted in the Federal Court on a charge of conspiracy to use the mails in an scheme to defraud in connection with the Square Deal Syndicate of Long Beach, pleaded guilty yesterday when the case was taken up for trial before Judge Bledsoe.

It is expected Gendron and Nickerson will testify for the government, with some thirty other witnesses to be called by David V. Cahill, assistant to the Attorney-General, who has charge of the prosecution of the case, which is one of several growing out of investigations into oil-promotion schemes originating in Southern California.

The men on trial are Chris Nelson and Webster W. Bush. In his opening statement to the jury Mr. Cahill said the government would show that while the syndicate was operating between March 23, 1922, and October 5, 1922, Nelson and Gendron, partners in the concern, sold oil lots to some 2000 persons, from whom they collected about $300,000.

INVESTIGATOR ON STAND

Nickerson and Bush, he said, were employed by the firm which owned some forty acres, for which they had paid $40,000. It would be shown, he explained, that the land was more than a mile from the producing wells in the Huntington Beach field. According to Mr. Cahill, ten acres of the land were retained by Nelson, while the lot was sold in the remaining thirty acres.

Among the first witnesses was Stephen H. Morse, postoffice inspector, who spent six months investigating the operations of the syndicate. He identified an aerial photograph of the land owned by the syndicate, which showed no producing wells had been sunk on it. He testified concerning the syndicate also testified. They were Samuel A. Carter, of Los Angeles, Florence Ochsen of Santa Ana, and Cora B. Steierberg of San Diego. Miss Ochsen told of listening to a lecture by Nickerson, who, she said, was introduced by Gendron as an "eminent geologist."

The lecture was one of many given in the city by Nickerson, where the syndicate gave a dinner for the benefit of prospective purchasers of lots.

The evidence went to show that the syndicate promised that at least twenty wells would be dug. One well was dug and it was abandoned after it had been put down 2367 feet, he said.

LONG TRIAL SEEN
The government does not expect to be through with the introduction of its evidence before the latter part of next week. Counsel for the defense said they did not know how many witnesses they would produce at the trial.

Mr. Cahill is being assisted in the prosecution by Maurice Norcop, Dist. Atty. Burke assisted in the examination of the defendants continued through the forenoon session of the court. The defendants who pleaded guilty are represented by Attorney Walter Deamond. The defendants on trial are represented by Mack Meader, former Assistant District Attorney, and Walter Burke.

PERJURY CASE DISMISSED

Beden and McGinty Freed of Charges Growing Out of Degan Attack Case Testimony

Justice Ambrose yesterday dismissed the case against James P. McGinty and Tom Beden, charged with perjury in connection with their testimony for Michael Degan at the latter's trial for an asserted assault upon Eloise Clement, psychologist and lecturer. The case against O. M. Ward, being tried on a similar charge for his testimony for Degan, was continued until Saturday for final argument and decision. Degan was convicted in the case.

Dismissal of the charges against the two men was on technical grounds, Justice Ambrose held. The decision stated that the question as to whether or not they prepared themselves in testifying that Degan declared Miss Clement had been in the same hotel room prior to the time of the asserted attack was not involved in the dismissal. Justice Ambrose declared that the testimony of the two men was immaterial and should never have been introduced at the Degan trial.

TESTIMONY CHALLENGED
Ward's testimony at the Degan trial was that Degan and Miss Clement spent the night of May 19, 1923, at the Hotel Degan at National City. This testimony formed the basis for the perjury charge. Dep. Dist. Atty. Burke declared the introduction of testimony purporting to show that Ward may have been mistaken regarding the identity of Miss Clement when he testified he saw her at the hotel, a charge which was admitted yesterday by Defense Attorney Richardson. Ward testified that when Degan and Miss Clement were at the hotel he "might have been mistaken," and that such an error would not have been unusual.

SECO CASE

City is Restrained From Interfering in Work of Rock Company

Judge Turk of the Superior Court yesterday granted a temporary order restraining the city from interfering with the Los Angeles Rock and Gravel Company in its business of excavating rock, sand and gravel from the bed of the Arroyo Seco in the vicinity of Avenue Thirty-five. The company posted a bond of $15,000 to insure against possible loss to any property holder through the activities of the company.

The order was issued in connection with a suit filed Monday by the city against the company, claiming that the company's operations were interfering with the city's police powers to acquire the company's holdings in the Arroyo Seco. It was charged the city had caused to be arrested six employees of the company who were at work on the plaintiff's tract.

The arrests were said to have been made by virtue of an ordinance adopted by the City Council in February, 1916, which provided for the division of the city into residential and industrial zones. The company contended the ordinance was unconstitutional and that its provisions were contrary to rights guaranteed the plaintiff by the constitution of the United States and California.

The freighters West Camfax and West Ekonk, both of 850 deadweight tons, were yesterday ordered out of idleness at Norfolk and will be reconducted immediately to Los Angeles Harbor upon being reconducted, while already en route here from Buenos Aires for assignment in Pacific trade is the Shipping Board steamer King of 3000 tons, which left recently in the East Coast South American service of the International Freight Corporation.

A sea service bureau, through which will be employed all officers and men on all Shipping Board ships, will be opened at the port this week, while work is also being done in the transfer of the home offices here from San Francisco. Seven Youths
Charged With Auto Stealing
The police speed squad, in charge of Acting Captain Harlan, arrested seven youth suspected of stealing autos and four young men suspected of violating the Wright Act by carrying intoxicating liquor in automobiles yesterday morning.

Those booked at the City Jail on suspicion of grand larceny gave the following names: Edward Zambrano, 21, 1010 E. Main St.; Walter Whisenand, 19, 1010 E. Main St.; Paul Hartog and Elmer Gentry. Those booked on suspicion of violating the liquor law gave the names of F. F. Mann, 21, 1010 E. Main St.; D. F. Corey and Jack Belmont.

Zambrano, Corey and Standley were arrested when they drove across the bridge at Main street and the river. Those arrested for violation of the liquor law were also picked up at this point. According to the report of the speed squad, Mann, Savoy and Corey were riding in a car with three gallons of beer and a half-gallon of colored liquor. In the car Belmont was riding in the officers said they found three part gallons and three part pints of liquor.

YEGGMAN CRACKS
TAILOR SHOP SAFE
GETS SILVERWARE, STICKPIN AND CASH AFTER USING SLEDGE HAMMER

A yegman with a sledge hammer broke open a safe in the office of the Eddie Schmidt tailor shop at 714 West Seventh street early yesterday morning and obtained $250 worth of silverware, a $500 diamond stickpin and $20 in cash, according to a report at Central Police Station.

The thief, according to the police report, entered the establishment by using a sledge hammer to break through the door of the office on the second floor. An examination of the surface of the strong box for finger prints was made by Acting Captain White and Officer Bligh of the flying squad.

Two different stories of an asserted altercation between a street car conductor and a negro were told yesterday in Judge Hewitt's court, where the suit brought by Susanna Martin against the Los Angeles Railway Company for $5000 damages went on trial.

The plaintiff contended the defendant denied her the payment of her fare. She declared it culminated when the conductor told her he was "tired of seeing" her and she ejected her from the car, tearing her clothes and causing her to sustain a bloody nose. The defendant denied the conductor had used force on her and declared that she was ejected from the car by the conductor, who she said, was "tired of seeing" her and she ejected her from the car, tearing her clothes and causing her to sustain a bloody nose.

HEAVY FINE FOR HAVING "MULE"
Evidence Found in Barn Has Kick, Although It Isn't Animal

Caesare Carallo kept a mule and a mule on his ranch near Lankershim. But the mule got Carallo into trouble and when prohibition officers called at his place to inspect his barn they found the mule to be one of the "white" variety and which was said to possess a "kick" of more than the legal one-half of 1 per cent.

Carallo pleaded guilty in Judge Avery's court yesterday to a charge of illegally manufacturing liquor and was fined $750. The court admonished him hereafter to keep only such mules as eat hay in his barn on his ranch near Lankershim.

JEWEL ROBBERY

Mrs. Eva Taylor

Mrs. Eva Taylor, taken in the round-up of the asserted Provident Loan robbers, was held to answer yesterday by Justice Ballard in $10,000 bail, on a charge of receiving stolen property. Deputy Sheriff Sweeney and Peoples and Detective Lieutenant Cahill testified jewelry found in her possession had been identified as part of the proceeds of the robbery, which was committed by James Blanton, for whom police are seeking. Mrs. Taylor put in no defense, but denied she knows Blanton.

Shipping Board to Use Three More Boats; Other Developments at Harbor

Announcement yesterday that three more United States Shipping Board freighters have been added to the government's growing merchant fleet in the Pacific followed closely two other important developments in the establishment of Los Angeles Harbor as the terminus for trans-Pacific and South American trade.

A sea service bureau, through which will be employed all officers and men on all Shipping Board ships, will be opened at the port this week, while work is also being done in the transfer of the home offices here from San Francisco. ## FLASHES

RIGHT IN SEASON

PRODUCTIONS AT LASKY'S SHOW SPRING STYLE

By Grace Kingsley

Out at the Lasky studios they seem to have a real sense of the eternal fitness of things. They don't appear so much inclined as some firms to make their players, wrapped in furs, film winter plays amid salt petre snow storms in sweltering summer time, nor, on the other hand, take part in summer plays while the wintry blasts whistle through their organdie gowns and their Palm Beach suits.

At any rate, the Lasky studio things are breaking for the actors

just now.

Victor Fleming has felt the call of spring and is carefully taking his entire troupe on an ocean voyage for the first scenes for "Code of the Sea."

Jacqueline Logan and Rod La-

Rocca, who are to be co-featured,

head the party, which includes also George Fawcett, Charles

Ogle, Luke Cosgrove and others.

La Rocca says he's a good sailor on the sea.

Byron Morgan, author of the story, is stealing away from his typewriter to travel with the company as a guest of the director.

Irvin Willat returned yesterday from the growing heat of the Arizona Desert in time to escape the first intensity of the weather down

there. But Jack Holt, Kathryn

Williams, Noah Beery and Billie

Dove all carry an advance summer tan, collected while they were camping out for five weeks. The picture, "The Wanderer of the Wasteland," and is being done in colors.

Everything except English is spoken on Dimitri Buchowetzki's set, where that great Russian director is directing Pola Negri in

"Men." Two Russian princes, a German baron, a Danish count and a French count, an Arab cavalry captain and an Arab sheik are among the players.

"Why," exclaimed Robert Eus-son, "they speak samovar Russian and table d'hôte French and everything else, and when somebody spoke English, they wanted to send for an interpreter."

Having completed "Icebound" at the East Coast Paramount studios,

William de Mille has returned to Los Angeles to begin work on his newest production, "The Inside Story," an original by Clare Ber-sanger.

No story has yet been selected for William Farman, but he is reading several, and expects to make a choice within a couple of weeks. He returned from New York to the Coast Sunday, his first trip west in a year and a half.

His wife accompanied him.

Mack Sennett Stays Home

Mack Sennett will be spared the hurry to New York which it was recently announced he was contemplating for the purpose of personally attending to the details of a new contract governing the release of his comedies for the next twelve months, through the Pathé exchange.

The reason for the postponement was the receipt of wired communication to the effect that

Reviving Memory of Chivalry's Age

LUBITSCH AGAIN

TO DIRECT POLA

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—

Ernest Lubitsch has been engaged to direct a picture

starring Pola Negri, according to an announcement made yesterday by Jesse

Lasky, first vice-president of

Famous Players-Lasky Corporation in charge of production. Mr. Lubitsch will begin work in the Lasky studio

in June following the completion of Miss Negri's next picture, "A Woman of the Night," which is to be directed by Dimitri Buchowetski, following Mr. Buchowet-ski's present picture, "Men."

ical studies and scenes from "Orpheus" by Gluck. The mourning at the tomb of Euripides, the appearing of the shadows and furies in Hades, and the finding of Euripides in the Elysian fields were all suggested in stage pictures that are in no sense strictly pantomime, but are freely attained

by Borodine.

Elsewhere they presented numbers of Chopin, Mendelssohn, Scriabine and Rachmaninoff, as well as the character of his music renditions, and played several very brilliant solos, including the A flat

Ballade by Chopin and "Au Cou-vent" by Borodine.

*****

A strong cast is seen in support of the star. It is headed by Patsy

Ruth Miller, Arthur Stuart Hull,

Stanley Wheatcroft, Eulalie Jensen, George Periolat and Eric

Mayne.

Carl Ellnor, leader of the California Theater orchestra, has arranged a special musical score for the picture in which he is using the song hits from the musical comedy.

"Anna Christie"

CLOSES SATURDAY

A last-minute change in the plans of Producer Thomas Wilkes, who guides the destinies of the Majestic Theater, will bring to a close

Saturday night the engagement of Pauline Lord and George Marion

in "Anna Christie."

Beginning next Sunday night Mr.

Wilkes will present New York's comedy star, Wallace Beery, in his recent success, "Captain Apple-jack." It has been five or six years since Edgington has been here and at that time he appeared in "Wagging Donkey" with Margaret Lawrence.

"Captain Applejack" might be termed a mystery comedy with a delightful romance involved. The play will be staged here in the same style as when Edgington started in it last season in New York, with a cast in every way

the equal of that seen on Broadway.

COLLEEN MOORE IN

NEW TOMBOY ROLE

Colleen Moore became famous for her "tomboy" roles before the present-day flapper stepped into the limelight. Following the film fashions, she essayed a flapper role in "Flaming Youth" and, in

TO PORT BY

American Hawaiian Chief Inspects New Terminals on Mormon Island

C. W. Cook, president of the American Hawaiian Steamship Company, came down from San Francisco yesterday ostensibly to Seriously, Mr. Cook was here, he admitted just to inspect the construction of the new terminal at the non Island, recently completed by the Los Angeles Harbor Department. He said that the cost was $1,000,000. He pronounced them "magnificent, among the finest on either coast" where his line touches. He said that the chief engineer, the port's father, however, was explained by Walter MacPherson, Los Angeles agent for the line, that the chief engineer was Mr. Cook, who, it is said, was responsible for the construction of pier A, Wilmington, the next largest port on the California coast and waterfront since his sprang, and it was done by bringing the American-Hawaiian ships here as

The port has prospered like the steamship line, he said, and its west-bound cargoes today run almost evenly with that of San Francisco.

Rumors that his line was to extend its service to Hawaii or the Philippine Islands were set at rest by him.

"That field at present," he said, "is covered; in addition to private lines there are three lines operating government mail service." He said it was almost immaterial whether they make expense or not. It wouldn't be policy to venture into such a field with private vessels, he said.

Mr. Cook has been with the American Hawaiian line continuously since 1911 except for a short time during the war when he was in charge of operations for the United Shipping Board. He arrived yesterday just in-time to arrive from Boston with 5000 tons of express freight, 1400 tons of which are being discharged here. Capt. J. Schermerhorn was again to his ship from a long vacation.

NEED FOR HOSPITALS STRESSED

Present Requirements of City Call for Outlay of $29,000,000, Says Wood

That the immediate need to adequate hospital facilities in Los Angeles in proportion to the pres-

000, was his statement made last night at a meeting of the Southern California Hospital Council at the Mary Louise.

"There are 3813 beds now in use in Los Angeles hospitals," N. M. Wood, superintendent of the Los Angeles General Hospital, told the council. "As many as 6187 are needed to bring facilities up to one for every 125 of the present population of 1,000,000. Each bed represents an investment of $4714."

L. G. Reynolds, president of the council, was toastmaster of the meeting.

It was the suggestion of Dr.

Spokane funds could be worked out through popular subscriptions in small amounts for the endowment of beds and proposed that the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and other public bodies endow hospital beds to offset the public subscriptions.

Speaking on how the hospital situation here compares with that of other cities, R. E. Skell, chair-

Besides the members of the council made up of superintendents and assistant superintendents of Southern California hospitals, Boyle Workman, president of the City Council; A. Carmen Smith, president of the Los Angeles Advertising Club; H. S. Mason, presi-

Goodfellow, president of the Lions' Club; J. J. Scott, chief of the fire department; Samuel Bishop, vice-president of the Kiwanis Club, and Dr. George P. Clements of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, were present at the meeting and expressed their approval of the council's plan.
